48 Die As Plane Crashes In Brazil

RECIFE, Brazil (UPI)— A Pan-air do Brasil DC-7-C airliner crashed into a hillside and burst into flames while coming in for a landing here today, killing 48 of the 85 persons aboard.

An airline official said seven of the 37 survivors were hospitalized in serious condition. The four-engine airliner was carrying nine crew members and 76 passengers from Lisbon, Portugal, to Rio De Janeiro on a low-fare "friendship flight."

One report carried by the Brazilian Meridional News Agency said two explosions ripped the plane before it struck the hillside while trying to land at Recife's Guararapes Airport.

The friendship flight, aimed at promoting tourism between Portugal and Brazil, was open only to residents of the two countries. The airlines said they believed all passengers to be either Brazilians or Portuguese.

Officials said the plane was destroyed by the crash and the fire that followed.

Seven survivors were taken to a hospital in Recife and 29 others to hotels in Recife—the northeast Brazilian city which gained worldwide attention when Portuguese insurgent leader Henrique Galvao surrendered the hijacked liner Santa Maria there last February.

In Lisbon, airport authorities said Navy Lt. Henrique Alfonso da Silva Horta, assigned to assume command of the training ship Guanbara in Rio and 12 of his men were aboard the plane but escaped injury.

The four-engine airliner had stopped at Ilha do Sal in the Cape Verde Islands on its flight across the South Atlantic to Recife and Rio.

Authorities said it was Pan-air's first crash on the Portugal-Brazil route in 16 years.

In London it was reported a car ferry plane crashed on the English Channel island of Guernsey today, killing one person and injuring eight.

The dead person was reported to be a crew member. Another crew member was missing.

Marinites Join Nationwide Women's March For Peace

Call On Supervisors; Start Letters Drive

Marin County women turned out in force yesterday and today to strike a blow for peace.

In doing so, they coincided with similar demonstrations being staged against nuclear bombs from the Bay Area to Washington, D.C.

At least 50 Marin housewives marched peacefully yesterday into the Marin County Board of Supervisors chambers to protest what they termed "Fusselman's bomb shelters."

Another 50 turned out this morning at the Mill Valley Post Office to mail letters to their friends and to wives of world leaders asking that "women work together for world peace."

No one thought, however, to bring Supervisor William D. Fusselman who, did not arrive for the 1 p.m. call to order. He finally arrived at 1:40 p.m.

The women, jammed in with a visiting Tamalpais High School class, sat uncomfortably holding signs bearing the slogans: "We Protest ALL Bomb Testing!" "Let's Raise Four Million Dollars for U.N. Instead of 40 Million for Community Tombs!" and "Stop The Arms Race —Save the Human Race!"

At 1:32 p.m., Mrs. Monte G. Steadman of 100 Edison Avenue, Corte Madera, announced that most of those present were mothers who "want to get home to their children." She read a letter, bearing 32 signatures, urging letters to President John F. Kennedy on behalf of peace.

"No civil defense program will protect us if war strikes," the letter stated.

As she read, Mrs. Marjorie Drath of 35 Belleview Avenue in San Rafael, distributed booklets to the supervisors.

"Are you organized all over Marin County?" asked Supervisor William Gnoss. Mrs. Steadman answered: "We're not really organized. This is a spontaneous group, resulting mostly from phone calls among people who feel bomb shelters won't protect our children."

MARIN'S SPOOKY 'FUN'

Halloween Celebrant Shot; Kids Lay Dozens Of Eggs

Two stone lions and a highway sign were deposited nearly on the lawn of the San Rafael Library.

In San Rafael Meadows, a parked car was splashed with paint. In Mill Valley, a television set and an overstuffed chair was placed in a street intersection. Throughout the county, thousands of waterbombs were hurled by juveniles who used "spook night" as an excuse.

The shooting caused no serious injury.

Victim was Walter B. Price, 29, of 534 Third Street, San Rafael. He and others were "celebrating Halloween" in the Embers tavern at 208 Redwood Avenue, Corte Madera, with several wearing cowboy costumes complete with six-guns.

Someone at the party started taking the bullets out of .22 shells and firing the percussion caps in his pistol, according to Police Chief Frank L. Nelson. One went off to near Price, and several fragments penetrated his chest.

Price, according to attendants at San Rafael General Hospital, was costumed not as a cowboy but as a hot dog.

The accidental shooting apparently occurred about 10 p.m., said Chief Nelson, but Price did not go to the hospital until 2:30 a.m. Name of the celebrant who fired the shot had not been learned, the chief said.

Mrs. Fred Apostoli, owner of the tavern, said she was present throughout the evening but was unaware of the accident.

Police Chief William Woodington of Belvedere reported youngsters riding in a station wagon threw eggs at a Greyhound bus at Beach Road and Main Street in Tiburon about 8 p.m., breaking a window of the bus. Woodington stopped the car, and cited a half dozen boys and girls to report to probation officers.

Three youngsters being taken to a party were forced to return home and change costumes after their car was pelted with ink-filled bags, eggs, apples and garbage at Fourth

Board Hears Marin Costs For Hospital

Frank E. Marsh of San Rafael told Marin County supervisors yesterday that for $400 a month per patient he can provide a privately constructed county hospital with 90 beds.

This, he said, is conditional on receipt of a certificate of necessity from the state Bureau of Hospitals which would allow him an FHA loan.

Marsh said he expects to receive the certificate. If it can be made to cover more than 90 beds, he will offer more, he said. Otherwise his plan is to finance another 30 beds to a total of 120 with private money. These would be for private patients but "the county would have first priority."

After outlining his scheme, involving purchase of three acres in Lucas Valley from the county and with provision of "basic care" for patients, Marsh said:

"What we want to know is whether you think we should go ahead on this basis."

"Tonight we couldn't tell you," replied Chairman William D. Fusselman. He went on to say that his current information was that total present costs are something over $300 per patient, with some additional costs for food, medication and physicians' services —all evidently comparable with Marsh's $400 figure.

"We'll have to work it out," he concluded.

Marsh, president of International Industrial Institute, Ltd., of San Francisco, pointed out that his group must contend with taxes, insurance and interest payments.

"Give us a letter for consideration next week," suggested Fusselman. "Spell it out."

PAKISTAN RIPS RUSS

U.S., Britain Backing U Thant As U.N. Chief

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) —The United States and Britain announced today they favor election of U Thant of Burma as secretary general and prefer to let him decide for himself the number of deputies he should have.

There was no indication that Russia, which has insisted that it have a voice in the number of deputy posts for Thant and the individuals to fill them, would agree to the proposal.

In the general assembly's main political committee, Pakistan accused Russia of forging documents purporting to outline plans of the Central Treaty Organization (CENTO) to create "death zones" in its own country and Iran as part of an attack on the Soviet Union.

Pakistan Ambassador Mohammad Zafrullah Khan condemned the documents as "calumny and absurdity," and said that Russia in preparing the false papers had added "subtlety to the artistry" of its propaganda mills.

Soviet delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin replied that the documents "are authentic and can easily be checked and verified," alleging that they had

$10,000 Novato Blaze Hurts Three Firemen

Two Novato firemen were hospitalized for smoke inhalation and one was injured in an early morning fire that routed four persons and did damage estimated at $10,000 to a home and its contents today.

Fire Capt. George Hale and Fireman John Church were hosiptalized at Novato Hospital after inhaling too much smoke in fighting the blaze at the home of Mrs. Donna Gage at 652 Rose Street. They were reported in good condition at the hospital.

Fireman Donald Ross received a back injury from a whipping hose line, said Fire Chief George Cavallero. Ross was sent to the doctor today after his back became worse, Cavallero said.

The fire broke out around the furnace in the main living room upstairs, Cavalerro said. Mrs. Gage, who was asleep alone upstairs, was awakened by the noise. She opened her bedroom door to be met with a blast of heat and smoke.

She quickly closed the door and went out through the bedroom window, dropping to a porch below, and then to the ground.

She woke A/1c Robert Butcher, his wife and child who live in the basement apartment. She turned in the fire alarm at 12:25 a.m.

Novato firemen had the fire under control by 1 a.m. but continued mopping up operations until 3 a.m. Twenty-five firemen with four trucks fought the blaze.

The upper portion of the house, with four bedrooms, was extensively damaged.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Reclaimed Water

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A state agency has revealed it is trying to turn sewage into drinking water.

Paul R. Bonderson, executive officer of the State Water Pollution Board, told the Senate Fact Finding Committee on Water Resources yesterday that an eight-year study on reclaimed water is scheduled to begin in 1962.

It is aimed at finding out if all pollutants—especially synthetic detergents — can be taken from municipal and industrial waste.

Sierra Madre Fire

SIERRA MADRE (AP) — Fire fighters succeeded today in gaining 60 per cent control of a brush fire that burned over two million dollars worth of watershed above this Los Angeles suburb.

A. U.S. Forest Service official said 1,260 acres of brush were blackened by the blaze.

Rayburn Is Home

BONHAM, Tex. (UPI)—House Speaker Sam Rayburn, 79, has made his final trip home. It was his wish to spend the last days of his life among friends and neighbors in his home town. He had wanted to return to the white colonial house he built on the fringe of Bonham.

He is only a mile or so from the house but he may never see it again. His family and his physician felt it would be easier to make the cancer-stricken congressman more comfortable in the town's small hospital.

Rayburn was placed in a corner room on the first floor of the 15-bed hospital where he can look out and see poplar and elm trees turning to autumn colors.

Chrysler Deadline

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp. returned to the bargaining table today under a warning from the United Auto Workers Union to develop a "greater sense of urgency" in new contract negotiations or face a strike at midnight tomorrow.

The UAW executive board set the strike deadline for 60,000 workers at a special meeting last night. "Under the circumstances," a union spokesman said, "the board felt it had no other choice."

The UAW was angered by Chrysler's delay in responding to a new union offer.

JFK Campaign Talks

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—President John F. Kennedy's campaign speeches — all of them — are now available in a 1,440-page collection, Sen. Ralph Yarborough (D-Tex.) announced yesterday.

The collection is the first part of a six-part report being prepared by the Senate Freedom of Communications subcommittee which Yarborough heads.

Part two will be the complete campaign speeches of former vice president Richard M. Nixon. The report also will include transcripts of the television debates between Nixon and Kennedy, hearings before the Freedom of Information subcommittee, and recommendations.

Air Hijacker Appeal

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Airplane hijacker Leon Bearden, 38, sentenced to life in a federal prison, says he will appeal.

The Coolidge, Ariz., resident and his son, Cody, were sentenced yesterday for the Aug. 3 hijacking of a Continental Airlines jet over southern New Mexico.

Bearden drew the life sentence on a kidnaping count. He got another 25 years on two other charges.

Cody, who will be 17 Nov. 13, was sentenced to a federal correctional institution until he is 21.

Railroad Battle

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Interstate Commerce Commission hearing of the Southern Pacific-Santa Fe battle to take over the Western Pacific Railroad entered its fourth month today.

Richard Campbell of the Nevada Public Service Commission said Nevada has been given the afternoon of Nov. 14 for the presentation of its side in the controversy.

Cross-examination of Santa Fe witness is continuing with spokesmen for major rail shippers next up. That leaves California's side to be heard from.

Skyscraper Shelter

CHICAGO (UPI) — A new 35-story skyscraper apartment building to be built north of Chicago's loop will include a fallout shelter designed to accommodate up to 1,000 persons for 30 days.

ALONE IN TOMB — Only the name of Lenin appears today on the tomb he shared with Stalin in Moscow's Kremlin for eight years. Lenin's body alone lies in state in the vault. And Stalin, on orders from the Communist Congress, has been moved to a grave near the Kremlin wall. (AP Wirephoto)

Stalin Buried At Kremlin Wall, Lenin's Tomb Reopened To Public

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet authorities reopened Lenin's tomb to the public today after hastily moving Stalin's body in the dead of night to a freshly dug grave next to the Kremlin wall.

Precisely at 11 a.m., the usual lengthy line of Soviet citizens began filing through the Red Square mausoleum, which up to a few days ago contained the bodies of both Lenin and Stalin.

The space alongside, which Stalin's body had occupied in a similar glassed-in casket, was bare.

The only traces of the former Soviet leader's presence in the tomb were the marks on the black marble floor where the edges of his bier had worn into the floor.

In another hasty nightlong operation, the black and red marble slab bearing the name of Lenin and Stalin was removed from the mausoleum and replaced with what appeared to be a wooden plaque carrying the name of Lenin alone.

The plaque, fitting snugly over the old location, was painted to look like black granite with Lenin's name engraved on it in red.

Stalin's plot, between the Kremlin wall and the mausoleum, was alongside that of former Soviet President Kalinen in an area reserved for historic Soviet figures.

Soviet Union Explodes Two More Devices

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union has exploded two more nuclear devices, both much smaller than the massive Soviet blast of Monday.

The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission announced the explosions were touched off yesterday at an Arctic test site. The first was reckoned at several megatons and the second was "probably below a megaton," the AEC reported.

The explosions were the 27th and 28th announced by the AEC since the Soviets resumed testing Sept. 1.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev told the Communist party congress that Monday's big blast exceeded 50 megatons, which he said was more powerful than expected.

In related developments:

1. Uruguay called on the Organization of American States to condemn nuclear tests.

2. The Voice of America announced an all-out attempt will be made Sunday to tell the Russian people about the Soviet tests — and their worldwide effects.

3. A group studying nuclear attack estimated that a 20-megaton bomb exploding in midtown New York City would kill six million of the city's eight million residents.

Carlos A. Clulow, Uruguay's ambassador, said his call for OAS condemnation of nuclear tests was prompted by fallout danger increased by the Soviet tests.

Hurricane Wrecks Honduras Seaport

MERIDA, Mexico (UPI) — Aid was rushed from several points by sea and air today to Belize, a sleepy British Honduras seaport reduced to a shambles by the onslaught of hurricane Hattie.

Reports filtering in from the battered area indicate that Belize, which was rebuilt after being destroyed by a hurricane in 1931, once again was a victim of near-total devastation.

Another radio report received here from Stanley in British Honduras said that all the large buildings in Belize were destroyed and that wooden homes were destroyed and ripped from their foundations. The low-level city was engulfed by water 10 feet deep.

"Damage to property (is) devastating," said Sir Collin Thornley, governor of British Honduras, in a radio message picked up yesterday in Florida.

"So far only two casualties are reported in Belize," said Thornley, "but there (are) almost certainly more."

However, widespread casualties were averted by advance warning.

The Red Cross in New Orleans said it received a radio report that nearly the entire population of Belize had fled to higher ground. Many of them headed for nearby El Cayo while others sought refuge in brick buildings such as convents, schools and hotels.

The Belize airport was heavily damaged, but radio reports said its runways still can be utilized.

Hattie, the most violent storm in the area since hurricane Janet in 1955, began her assault on Belize early yesterday. Whipping up wind gusts of 200 miles per hour, Hattie knocked out communications to and from the city.

The hurricane then continued its journey westward and hurled its fury into the mountainous region of Peten in Guatemala, near the Mexican border.

Mexican officials said the storm would probably lose much of its force in the mountains, but it was expected to cross the Yucatan Peninsula and reach the coast of Mexico on the bay of Campeche sometime today.

Winifred Baker Chorus Auditions

A second round of auditions for the Winifred Baker Boys' Chorus will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. in room 116 of Angelico Hall, Dominican College.

"The chorus will present two concerts this season," director Winifred Baker said.

Strike Of Dominican Workers Is Gaining

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, D.R., (UPI) — The Dominican Republic's first strike since the assassination of Generalism Rafael Trujillo—and probably the first in many years—appeared to be gaining strength today.

The government newspaper The Nation said that 225 workers along with several dozen office employees at a bag and cord factory here went on strike yesterday following the example of workers who walked out Monday at a factory located in Los Minas, just outside of Ciudad Trujillo.

The strikes were reported to be the first in the Dominican Republic in many years. The workers are demanding a raise in the minimum daily wage from $1.28 to $2 a day with a 25 per cent increase for workers presently earning more than $2 a day.

Other demands include free transportation, better eating facilities and an annual profit-sharing bonus.

The cost of living here is similar to the United States, with clothing and manufactured goods generally more expensive and food slightly less.

The Nation newspaper said Dominican Secretary of Labor Jose Angel Savinon is presiding over labor-management talks seeking an equitable solution to what the newspaper called the "just demands" of workers desiring a better standard of living.

A member of the political opposition denied that they were participating in strike organizing.

Drug Patents Held Discouraging To Needed Research

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A former drug company official said today drug patents often discourage research and merely offer "convenient short-cuts to commercial success."

Dr. A. Dale Console of Princeton, N. J., former medical director of E. R. Squibb and Co., made the comments in a statement prepared for hearings by the Senate antitrust and monopoly subcommittee on a drug control bill.

Other scheduled witnesses were Dr. Alonzo S. Yerby, New York department of welfare, and Joseph Gray Jackson, patent expert for the American Bar Assn.

Console said the "ease with which many drug patents can be obtained" has led to a cynical pursuit of quick profits in the drug industry and a trend toward mediocrity in research.

He said the talent of skilled researchers was being wasted in efforts to find easily patentable "molecular modifications" of new drug discoveries, instead of pursuing "more significant lines of inquiry."

Console said two patented tranquilizers — Dartal and Trilafon — are so similar that Dartal must be specially coated to avoid patent infringement.

Dartal becomes the same compound as Trilafon when it touches water, he said, hence it must be protected from moisture to avoid becoming chemically and therapeutically the same as Trilafon — yet both have separate patents.

"Research facilities and personnel are limited," Console said, "and the time wasted on evading patents could be better spent on new and different drugs."

Yerby presented the subcommittee with figures which he said showed savings in costs to New York welfare patients when prescription medicines were prescribed by generic, or chemical names, rather than by trade names.

He said the savings amounted to $60,000 in one year on just 11 preparations.

Jackson apposed the controversial patent provisions of the bill sponsored by subcommittee Chairman Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.).

He said "it would be pennywise and pound-foolish to enact legislation which would jeopardize the continuous outpouring" of new drug discoveries.

Mouth-To-Mouth Not Really New

KITCHENER, Ont. (AP) — Dr. Wolfgang Sporrel, a professor of anesthesia, told a meeting of the Kitchener-Waterloo Academy of Medicine that mouth-to-mouth resuscitation is not new.

He said it was described by two Danish physicians in 1796 and also is mentioned in the Bible.

String Quartet Concert Set At Church Sunday

The Sausalito Presbyterian Church will present the Marin String Quartet in a recital Sunday at 3 p.m. in the church at 112 Bulkley Avenue, Sausalito. It will be open to the public without charge.

Quartet members are Mabel Pittenger, director and violinist, Michael Gerling, violinist, and Jean Maguire, cellist, all of Mill Valley; and Esther Furnas of San Anselmo, violist. Guest soloist will be Bette Kuhlmann of Mill Valley, flutist.

The program will be a repeat performance of a concert given recently at the Mill Valley public library. It includes the "Rosamunde" quartet for flute and strings by Mozart; the Quintet for Flute and Strings "4 Minutes, 20 Seconds" by the contemporary American composer Roy Harris; Schubert's string quartet in A Minor, and "Dances of Panama" by the American Negro composer William Grant Still.

Won't Be Swearing Over Missed Putts

KENNESAW, Ga. (AP)—There shouldn't be any swearing over missed putts or sliced drives at a golf tournament announced for this little town.

Competition is limited to preachers. Bill Hardigree, professional at O. B. Keeler golf course, is calling it the North Georgia Ministerial Golf Tournament.

Woman Demands Council Apologize

Mrs. Richard E. Doyle is demanding that the Belvedere City Council take back its censure and apologize to her.

Mrs. Doyle has served demand, through the San Rafael legal firm of Freitas, Allen, McCarthy and Bettini, that the council "appropriately spread upon its minutes a public acknowledgement of, and apology for" its criticism of her at a Sept. 11 meeting.

The Belvedere Council that night directed that Mrs. Doyle be asked "to desist from further interference with city employees in performance of their duties."

The council acted after hearing Police Sgt. Robert W. Scheiner and city maintenance employee Louis Soldavini complain that Mrs. Doyle "called us liars, crooks, used vulgar language" as they were working to correct a sewage backup.

Scheiner related some of the language he said Mrs. Doyle had used.

"Mrs. Doyle unequivocally denies having made the statements attributed to her," declared the attorneys in a letter directed to all members of the Belvedere City Council, its city manager and city attorney.

The attorneys questioned the legal right of the city council "to censure anybody regarding that person's conduct outside the council chambers."

Further, it declared the matter had been placed on the agenda, Scheiner, Soldavini and "a then purported witness to the incident" had been heard, without any notification to Mrs. Doyle.

"Constitutional and statutory safeguards of a citizen's civil rights, in all tribunals of any dignity, require proper and reasonable notice, an opportunity to confront witnesses testifying against them, to cross-examine said witnesses, and to present evidence in their own behalf," declared the attorneys.

But Mrs. Doyle, said their letter, knew nothing of the censure until she read about it in the Independent-Journal.

SMART LITTLE HOUSEWIFE!

In which group are you?

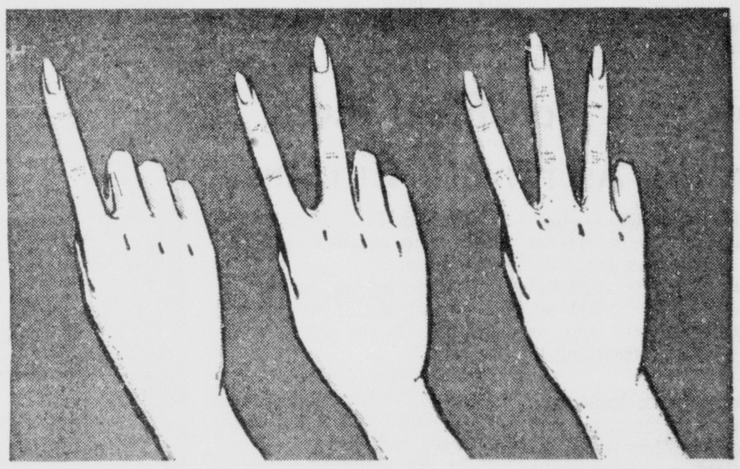

ARE YOU a "labor-of-love" girl? You serve your gang a hearty breakfast ... bacon 'n eggs ... warm toast ... butter, jam and plenty of personal attention.

ARE YOU an "activity girl"? Probably you work outside the home too ... perhaps you serve breakfast on a "catch-as-catch-can" basis. Good food minus the pep-talk.

ARE YOU an "inbetween type" girl?... part group #1 ... part group #2. Time permitting, you serve big hearty breakfasts ... fruit juice ... toast ... bacon and eggs ..."the works".

GROUP one ... two or three ... on one thing all of you agree. You never go wrong serving toast made with fresh KILPATRICK'S, the bread with that baking-day flavor.

TREAT YOUR APPETITE RIGHT

COHEN INDICTED IN SLAYING

GOODWILL GROUP

4 Taking 'Vacations' As Public Health Team

Four Mill Valleyans will leave Marin Jan. 8 to "take their vacations" working as a public health team in Costa Rica.

All are family men. Three are in the medical profession: Dr. Fred Burkhart, a doctor of medicine, and Douglas Billion, a physiotherapist, at U.S. public health service in San Francisco, and Dr. Belman Maddox, a dentist at Fort Baker. The fourth is Rev. G. Russell Oaks, pastor of the Mill Valley Methodist Church.

Rev. Oaks originated the idea of the goodwill trip. "It is a philosophical thing with me," he said. "I feel there is a great reservoir of goodwill for Latin Americans, and other peoples, but it is frustrated since no one knows how to carry out the ideas. We will go, not as tourists, but as working people."

All will take their three weeks vacation time and return Jan. 28.

Objectives of the team, Rev. Oaks said, are to work with people in villages who need medical treatment, make friends, try to find promising students, and develop means of getting scholarships to some of them.

Speaking for himself, Rev. Oaks added, "I'm doing this instead of building a bomb shelter."

He said he has been in touch with Methodist missions and government officials in the Central American country and an itinerary is to be worked out. "We will avoid cities where medical aid is more available," he said.

Money for the trip is being raised through the church and other sources. Three of the four are Methodists. Dr. Burkhart is a Congregationalist.

The team is now raising funds for a four-wheel drive vehicle, medicines and scholarships. The trip can be done for $2,000, the minister said. Extra money will be applied to scholarships and medicine and the car. Some medicines have been donated.

Rev. Oaks said a San Jose industrialist has offered to pay one-third the cost of the vehicle which, when the team returns is to be left in Costa Rica either with a medical facility or a mission.

The men will fly both ways. In Costa Rica a student will act as interpreter.

"I would hope this kind of thing could be worked out by many professions," the pastor said, "—business men, teachers, engineers and other professions."

Army Says Van Fleet Made Remarks As Private Citizen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gen. James A. Van Fleet's remarks that U. N. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson should be fired and the United States should not fight for Berlin were made as a private citizen, according to the Army.

In disassociating itself from the statements, the Army said yesterday Van Fleet will act as a consultant on its guerrilla warfare program for only 90 days during the coming year, and will get no pay.

President John F. Kennedy made no mention of these limitations when he announced Van Fleet's recall from retirement.

The Army said that when he is not acting as a consultant, "the general's remarks are made in his capacity as a private citizen.

"To date he has performed no official duties as special consultant to the secretary of the army."

The 69-year-old general was a hero in the Normandy landings of World War II and later in Greece and Korea.

At the White House, acting press secretary Jay Gildner said it was expected that Van Fleet would go ahead with his task despite the reported remarks, but he said he did not know whether Kennedy knew of the statements.

The Tampa Tribune quoted Van Fleet as saying in a speech at Lakeland, Fla., Monday night he would "have fired" Stevenson because, he said, Stevenson refused to support American air cover for the Cuban invasion last April.

Stevenson sent a telegram to Van Fleet denying that he even knew of the Cuban invasion until after it had begun, and suggesting that "you check the facts yourself."

College Of Marin Bus Driver Hit In Parking Lot

A College of Marin bus driver doing his accustomed stint of traffic direction at a college parking lot was hit yesterday by a student driver who said the sun had blinded him momentarily.

George Baldini, 61, of 5 Ash Avenue, Kentfield, was carried several feet on the hood of a car driven by Scott Robert Moriarty, 17, of 11 Porteous Avenue, Fairfax. He was later treated at Marin General Hospital for a wrenched back.

Baldini has done rush-hour duty at the parking lot for 12 years. Young Moriarty said he knew Baldini handled this duty but was unable to see Baldini the sun struck his windshield.

Apartment House Windows Broken

John Robert Reystead of 17 Plaza Drive, Mill Valley, coowner of an apartment house under construction across from Vallecito School, has reported to San Rafael police someone had broken windows in the apartment house.

Reystead said this had happened in the past and the damage is "running into hundreds of dollars." He said the vandals are also scattering plywood and lath all over the area.

BRICK OF A PROTEST

Lothar Wuersin, 34-year-old clerk who tossed a brick through a window of the Soviet Union's United Nations headquarters building yesterday, leaves police station after being booked on charges of malicious mischief and disorderly conduct. The brick (below) was painted white with an inscription, for my unborn, 50 Mgs., painted in red. Wuersin protested the exploding of the Russian super-bomb. (AP Wirephoto)

Atmosphere Tests Are Urged Of U.S.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A senior member of the joint atomic committee joined today in urging U.S. resumption of atmospheric nuclear tests. He said fallout could be held to a fraction of that produced by Russian tests.

Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.) ranking Democratic senator on the congressional group, joined Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) of the Senate armed services committee in calling for resumption of tests in the atmosphere.

Russell said he considered tests in the air essential "until we perfect the neutron bomb."

Anderson in a statement released by his office here, made no mention of the neutron bomb. But he said "complete weapons systems and proof tests or large-yield weapons cannot be tested underground." He said important data on antimissile defenses could be obtained only through atmospheric tests.

He said Russia's intensive atmospheric tests which featured 25 megaton and 50 megaton devices, could have resulted in "relatively large gains in nuclear weapons testing."

"In a rationally conducted test program, the annual amount of fission products distributed worldwide could be limited to only a fraction of the amounts the Soviets have distributed in the past two months," Anderson said.

Bequest From Grandmother Big Surprise For Gamble

ERLENBACH, Switzerland (UPI)—Runaway heiress Gamble Benedict Porumbeanu "could hardly believe" her feuding grandmother had left her 20 million dollars, albeit with strings attached, her husband said today.

Andre Porumbeanu, ex-chauffeur who eloped with the "poor little rich girl" last year, said he, too, was "surprised" at the bequest by Mrs. Katherine Geddes Benedict who died Sunday night in New York.

Mrs. Benedict had battled her granddaughter's romance at every turn but left two fifths of the estimated 50-million-dollar estate to Gamble. However, she put the money in trust, allowing the heiress to touch only the income.

If her inheritance were invested at a conservative 4 per cent, Gamble would get $800,000 a year from the trust. This does not calculate inheritance or income taxes, however.

"This was really a surprise and my wife and myself could hardly believe it at first," Porumbeanu said.

Couple 'Adopt' Chinese Boy

A San Rafael couple has financially adopted an 8-year-old Chinese boy living in Hong Kong.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Barnard of 103 Highland Avenue have adopted the boy through Foster Parents' Plan, Inc., to replace an Italian girl whom they had been aiding and who is now financially independent.

Russ Film At Center

An import from Russia, "Ballad of a Soldier," will be shown at the Marin Jewish Community Center in San Rafael tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. The movie, a story of a Soviet soldier during World War II directed by Grigori Chukhral, is part of the center's current foreign film series.

sured the women that no decision had been made to build shelters, and none would be without more investigation.

Clerk George S. Jones then began to read from a pile of letters, some with multiple signatures, all urging the supervisors to work for peace rather than build shelters.

At the Mill Valley Post Office this morning, women sat outside on cement steps pasting stamps on their letters, with children in their arms or at their feet. They came from Corte Madera, San Rafael, Tiburon and Sausalito, in addition to Mill Valley.

The housewife with the largest number of letters was Mrs. John Miller of Mill Valley with 175. She said "the family had to eat hot dogs last night while I finished signing the letters."

"I can't believe," Mrs. Miller said, "there are so many people who feel either that nothing can be done or 'what's one little voice?'"

Mrs. Lois Perkins of Tamalpais Valley dispatched airmail letters to Madames Nikita Khrushchev, Harold Macmillan, Charles de Gaule and Queen Elizabeth II, among others.

After Mrs. Joseph Moore of Mill Valley mailed a giant postcard addressed to Mesdames Kennedy, Khrushchev, Macmillan and De Gaule, the women dispersed to the Gallery Coffee House to jointly sign the letters to world leaders.

Declared to be a "spontaneous movement," by Mrs. Jo Schlesinger of Homestead, the letters ask "that you join me in working for peace in whatever way you can in your community."

Mrs. Schlesinger said, "We are a collection of individuals —Republicans, Democrats, independents, liberals, conservatives. The only point of agreement that I know is that we all feel it is getting too hopeless to think of war as the only means of dealing with problems. We would like to try a more difficult solution which is peace."

Protests were staged at the University of California at Berkeley, at San Francisco State College and at city halls in other Bay Area cities.

A group of San Francisco area housewives participating in a vigil at First Unitarian Church in San Francisco were to march to city hall to Mayor Christopher's office.

In Sacramento, 50 women staged a "strike for peace" at the Capitol. They urged the governor to encourage the State Economic Development Agency to plan "the conversion of California's armaments economy to a peacetime economy."

At the nation's Capitol, 600 women "Strikers for Peace" paraded to the White House and the Soviet Embassy to urge the help of Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Khrushchev in ending the arms race.

state desires are met concerning safety factors of the present buildings, there will be no license after the end of this year and patients will have to go elsewhere.

"We'd have to consider what to do with patients over a year while the new hospital was being built, he said.

Discussion involved such problems as land acquisition under most favorable possible conditions, need for a hill slope "with better drainage than on the flat," provision for possible county purchase after seven years, and possible cutting of costs if insured mortgage arrangements could be made for the full 120 beds rather than only the county's 90.

It was decided to resume the discussion at 3:30 p.m. next Tuesday.

Communist Party Summit Called Off

MOSCOW (UPI)—A Communist Party summit meeting has been called off because the Chinese Communist delegation has returned to Peiping, it was disclosed today.

The government newspaper Izvestia said the last Chinese delegates left yesterday. Premier Chou En-lai left last week while the congress was in session and did not return.

While in Moscow Chou publicly questioned Premier Nikita Khrushchev's open denunciation of Albania. He said it only helped Communist opponents to air family quarrels in public.

Rocket Blows Up

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Blue Scout rocket spiraled crazily out of control and exploded in flight today shortly after it was launched in an effort to orbit a satellite to test the worldwide U.S. man-in-space tracking program.

Marin General Names New Chief Of Staff

Marin General Hospital directors last nigh appointed Dr. Dallas L Wagner of San Rafael as chief of staff of the hospital to succeed Dr. Alfred J. Schwarz who resigned because of ill health.

Dr. Wagner, past president of the Marin Medical Society, was president of the staff at San Rafael General Hospital in 1955. He has practiced medicine in San Rafael since 1947.

The directors hired Robert L. Matthews, 33, personnel assistant at Ledex, Inc., in Ohio, as personnel directors at Marin General Hospital effective Nov. 7.

He has had several years of experience in the hospital field and earned a bachelor of science degree from University of Dayton in Ohio, and a master of business education degree from Miami University, Ohio.

A progress payment of $37,071 was made to the Barrett Construction Co. for work on the new William Babcock Memorial Wing which the board reported was being built according to schedule.

Administrator William W. Turner reported operating revenues for September exceeded expenses by $7,708. The average daily patient load for September was 83, said Turner.

been sent by CENTO to military commands of Iran, Iraq, Pakistan, Turkey, Britain and the United States in 1958.

Tsarapkin said Pakistan was being used by the Western powers, and cited the 1960 reconnaissance flights from that country by U-2 spy planes of the United States.

Zafrullah objected to the action of the United Nations in circulating the documents, at Russia's request, as official papers in the General Assembly's main political committee's debate on nuclear tests. He said Russia did not itself regard them as official documents, but circulated them merely as a statement by the official Soviet Tass news agency.

The documents purported to show that in an attack on Russia, CENTO nuclear weapons would be used against a number of "interdiction targets" in Pakistan and Iran to lay waste to a zone to impede a Soviet counterattack.

Spurred by world indignation at Russia's super explosions, delegates pressed for a vote on resolutions aimed at ending nuclear tests either permanently or on a moratorium basis.

A dozen more delegations made plans to speak before the general assembly's main political committee, which is debating the issue. It was hoped that a vote could be taken by the afternoon session on an Indian proposal for a new, uninspected moratorium on nuclear weapons tests.

Investigation Of Theft Ring Is Widened

San Rafael police were working with the El Dorado County sheriff today to determine whether a burglary and robbery ring, allegedly headed by suspended Police Officer Arthur M. Newman, had operated as far north as the Lake Tahoe area.

Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa widened his investigation to El Dorado because a typewriter, found at Newman's San Rafael home yesterday, turned out to be one stolen on Jan. 20 burglary of a propane gas company at Lake Tahoe.

Police Officer Thomas Cheetham and Deputy Dist. Atty. Hadden W. Roth searched Newman's home and turned up the typewriter and a Victor adding machine in the garage. The typewriter serial number matches the one that was stolen from Lake Tahoe. The adding machine was stolen from Shamrock Materials in San Rafael, according to Officer Cheetham and Inspector Donald E. Midyett of the district attorney's office.

Almost simultaneously with the recovery of the stolen items Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety announced the arrest yesterday of a suspected burglar believed to be the fourth member of Newman's ring.

He is Robert Harris Miller, 37, of 2844 23rd Street, San Francisco. Inspector Midyett and Investigator William Bemiss arrested Miller at work at a refrigerator store in San Francisco.

Miller has served time in San Quentin Prison for burglary. He is accused of burglaries of Shamrock Materials and Bermuda Palms in San Rafael last Aug. 21. He was freed from Marin County Jail on $5,250 bail and is scheduled to appear in court with an attorney Friday afternoon.

Newman, a trusted police officer in San Rafael since 1956, is suspected of setting up burglaries and robberies of stores and markets on his San Rafael patrol beat.

OBITUARIES

Charles Eastman Succumbs

Charles W. Eastman, member of a Marin County pioneer family whose colorful career ranged from city marshal to fire chief to supervisor of a water company, died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness.

Eastman, 77, served as the San Anselmo city marshal prior to World War I. He subsequently became chief of the Valley of the Moon Fire Department in Sonoma County in the 1920s. From 1930 through the 1940s he was superintendent of the Sonoma Valley Water Co. at Bitter Springs. In recent years he had been employed by the McNear Co. in San Rafael.

He was a member of the Mendocino Lodge 179, Free and Accepted Masons; Royal Arch Masons Lodge of Mendocino, and a past patron of the Order of Eastern Star, Ocean View Chapter 111.

Eastman, who lived at McNear's Point, San Rafael, is survived by his wife Florence; one son, Charles J. Eastman, a mining engineer in Chile; and one daughter, Mrs. Kathryn Rod of Redwood City.

He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Frances Stewart of Fort Seward, in Humboldt County, and Mrs. Gay Marshall of Fairfax; four brothers, Stewart Eastman of Fort Seward, and Kenneth, Don and Gerry Eastman of Fairfax; five grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services under auspices of Marin Lodge 191, F and A.M., will be held Friday at 10:30 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael, with inurnment at Chapel of the Chimes in Santa Rosa.

RUSSELL CORNWELL

Funeral services for Russell Edward Cornwell, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Cornwell of Sanchez Road, Forest Knolls, will be held at the chapel of Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno, tomorrow at 1 p.m.

Russell collapsed and died at his Forest Knolls home yesterday shortly after arising at his usual 6 a.m. Doctors have attributed his death to a closing of the windpipe induced by a cold.

He is survived by his parents; two brothers, Herbert and Roland Cornwell, and two sisters, Brinda K. and Pamela Cornwell.

MISS COUTOLENC

Leonie V. Coutolenc, who served as a nurse with the Army during World War I, died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness.

Miss Coutolenc, 90, had made her home with her nephew, Maurice H. Picard, at 200 H Street, San Rafael.

Her nursing career, spanned 60 years. She at one time was on the staff of San Rafael General Hospital when it was known as Cottage Hospfital.

She was a native of Oakland.

A High Mass of Requiem will be said at the St. Helena Church in St. Helena at 10:30 a.m. Friday. Interment will be in the St. Helena Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. tomorrow.

MARIE FICAT

Mrs. Marie Ficat, 81-year-old mother of George Ficat, 216 Richardson Avenue, Mill Valley, died yesterday in a local hospital after a brief illness.

Mrs. Ficat, who made her home with her son, had resided in California for 59 years. She was a native of France. She was the widow of Auguste Ficat.

She had been a member of Seminole Council 68, Daughters of Pocohantas, in San Francisco.

Besides her son, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Estelle Garrigues of San Francisco.

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated at the Church of Notre Dames des Victoires, San Francisco, Friday at 9 a.m., with interment at Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma. The funeral cortege will leave the chapel of Gantner-Maison-Domergue Mortuary, San Francisco, at 8:30 a.m.

The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. at the funeral home.

IRENE RUSH

A Mass of Requiem for Mrs. Irene Finkle Rush, former executive secretary of Calso Water Co. of Menlo Park will be offered at Holy Innocents' Episcopal Church, Corte Madera, Saturday at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Rush died Monday at a local hospital following a short illness.

A native Californian who was born in San Diego, she had been employed for over 20 years by Calso Water Co. Six years ago she retired to Marin County and established residence in Corte Madera. For the past year, she had made her home at 1123 Elm Drive, Novato.

MRS. WARREN

A chronic abdominal ailment was responsible for the death of Mrs. Margaret H. Warren, who collapsed and died at her Mill Valley home yesterday, according to the coroner's report released today.

Mrs. Warren, 38, suffered a relapse during an illness from which she was believed to be recovering. She telephoned for medical aid but died before a doctor arrived at the home at 198 Almonte Boulevard.

She is survived by her husband, San Francisco interior decorator John C. Warren, and three children, Wendy, 17; Cory, 14; and John, 10.

Funeral arrangements are pending at N. Gray & Co. Mortuary, San Francisco.

STANLEY ULRICH

Private funeral services for Stanley D. Ulrich, vice president of the American Trust Co., will be held tomorrow at Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael.

Ulrich, 54, who was incorrectly referred to in yesterday's Independent-Journal as Edward S., died at a local hospital Tuesday after a long illness.

A resident of San Rafael since he completed his World War II military service in 1946, he had been the 1961 commodore of the Marin Yacht Club, San Rafael.

He is survived by his wife, Esther; two sons, Edward S. Ulrich of Pacifica, San Mateo County, and Stephen Ulrich of San Rafael, and two daughters, Barbara and Sharon Ulrich of San Rafael.

WILLIAM REISNER

Private funeral services for William B. Reisner, retired mechanical engineer with the Budd Co. of Philadelphia, and will be held tonight in San Rafael.

Reisner, 75, died yesterday at a local hospital after brief illness.

A native of Illinois, Reisner came to Marin County five years ago. He had resided with his brother, San Francisco attorney John G. Reisner, at 500 Redwood Avenue, Corte Madera. For the past year, he had also maintained a home on Boardwalk 3 in Larkspur.

He is survived by three brothers, Charles Reisner of Long Beach, Wash.; Fred Reisner of Charleston, Ill., and John G. Reisner, and one sister, Mrs. Lee Honey of Rochester, Ill.

Inurnment will be at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

Radioactive Cloud Due Over Siberia

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Weather Bureau estimated today that the radioactive cloud from Russia's massive bomb explosion Monday will pass over Siberia's Kamchatka Peninsula tonight.

Fallout expert Robert List said he expects the cloud to cross over the Aleutian Island chain tomorrow and reach Alaska later in the day.

When E. F. Hutton (himself) selected a skilled telegrapher as manager of his new San Francisco office it was a decision made with the forethought that has distinguished the firm for 57 years.

The year was 1904 and E. F. Hutton contracted for the first exclusive transcontinental wire circuit leased from Western Union by a brokerage firm. Hutton reasoned that a manager who knew telegraphy as well as securities would provide customers with faster order handling and better service.

Speed and service continue to characterize E. F. Hutton. Why not let Hutton serve you?

YOUR VOICE TRAVELS 30 MILES WHEN YOU CALL FROM MILLBRAE TO RICHMOND

It's a long distance, but this phone call costs 15% less than Long Distance rates

HERE'S WHY: Although your call from Millbrae to Richmond travels as far as many Long Distance calls, you pay less than Long Distance rates. This call, like most calls to other communities in the Bay Area, is measured in message units. The number of message units depends on how far you call and how long you talk. The message units are combined on your bill instead of each call being itemized. This costs less for bookkeeping, so you pay less for these calls.

If you need an occasional call itemized, place it through the operator as a station-to-station call. The charge will appear separately on your bill at regular long distance rates without the 15% saving. Or you can have all these calls itemized for a small extra charge. Call our Business Office for details.

Augustus John Death Mourned By Art World

LONDON (UPI) — The art world today mourned the death of Augustus John, one of the greatest portrait artists of this time and the last of the Bohemian painters.

John, 83, died yesterday after a week's illness. He will be buried tomorrow at Fordingbridge, Hampshire, where he lived and worked.

Ranked as one of Britain's foremost painters, John became a legend with his wild eyes, golden earrings, unkept whitebeard and his iconoclastic painted heroes and statesmen.

Among those who sat for their portraits were Winston Churchill, Lawrence of Arabia and the Queen Mother Elizabeth. However, her portrait was unfinished at his death.

"Augustine John was the only remaining representative of a new totally exhausted tradition of Bohemianism," said one newspaper.

Christopher, Gov. Brown Square Off Over Report Of Job Bait For Mayor

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Gov. Brown and Mayor George Christopher traded charges yesterday over a report that Christopher — a Republican — had been offered a top government job to stay out of California's 1962 election campaign.

Brown denied the report first published by Earl C. Behrens, political editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, and said Christopher had approached him about the possibility of an appointment to an overseas post.

But he did not take the suggestion seriously, Brown said.

Hearing of the governor's statement, Christopher declared that Brown approached him Oct. 7 and suggested that "I, as a service to my country, consider a government post, presumably in the foreign service, and remain out of the 1962 campaign.

Christopher has been considered as a potential candidate for lieutenant governor. He has declared his support of former Vice President Richard M. Nixon's bid for the GOP gubernatorial nomination.

Roger Kent, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, backed up Brown's version. Kent said of the alleged offer:

Kent added: "He (Christopher) might try the French Foreign Legion. They're not particular."

Behrens in a page one Chronicle story yesterday quoted unidentified Washington sources as saying Brown had discussed an appointment for Christopher either directly with President John F. Kennedy or with a key member of the White House staff.

"Held out as bait to the mayor was the possibility of an ambassadorship to Christopher's native Greece," Behrens said.

Brown called the story a "prize case of political reporting through the looking-glass," and declared there was no truth in it.

He said Christopher told him several weeks ago that he (Christopher) was tired of the rigors of political office.

At another meeting on Sept. 14, Brown said, Christopher approached him and expressed interest in an overseas post.

"I asked him what he had in mind and he said, 'Perhaps someplace in Russia.' I said, 'What about Siberia?' And he did not press it," Brown related.

Three Governor Candidates Sign 'Good Conduct' Pledge

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Three of the four declared candidates for the Republican gubernatorial nomination next year have signed "good conduct" pledges, party county chairman J. A. Leetham said today.

Leetham said he had drafted the pledge because he had heard of concern among party workers.

He said the pledge has been signed by former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, former Lt. Gov. Harold Powers and Assemblyman Minority Leader Joseph C. Shell.

Leetham said the fourth candidate, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, had approved the pledge in form but had asked for a delay in signing it. Nixon is out of the city.

The pledge commits losing candidates to support the primary winner against the democratic candidate in the finals.

Thomas G. Edwards, Navy storekeeper seaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. David G. Jones of 17 Tower Drive, Mill Valley, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Ticonderoga, operating with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Salty Shelter

GENESEO, N.Y. (AP) — Civil defense officials in this Western New York area have suggested using the Retsof salt mines a few miles away as a city-sized fallout shelter. The mines, between 900 and 1,200 feet underground, cover an area about the size of Manhattan Island.

Novato Gets Clubhouse — And Problems

Ownership of the Novato Community Clubhouse passed to the City of Novato last night —and with ownership, the city council discovered it had acquired a few problems.

City Atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. presented a grant deed from Novato Community, Inc., executed in accordance with the winding of Marin Superior Court in a suit over whether the club was obligated to present its clubhouse to the city.

NO COMMENT

Councilmen accepted the deed without comment. No one was present representing the club.

Then came the problems.

Among the problems that came up were: When would the city start payment of public utilities? Who would do the janitorial work? How much insurance should the city carry on the building? How much should it charge organizations that were using the building? How much title insurance should it have on the property?

The council voted to take over the utilities starting Oct. 30. It also voted to have City Administrator J. Julien Baget take care of immediate janitorial work necessary for the organizations that were paying for use of the building.

The council accepted a temporary insurance rider for $75,000 in fire insurance which included the building in the city's blanket policy. It authorized city attorney Palmer to investigate title insurance and report to the council on Nov. 14.

The council also agreed to inspect the building to determine its condition and the maintenance it would require. Time for the inspection is to be set when all council members are present. Mayor Wayne Womack and Councilman M. E. Silva were absent last night.

The council delayed any action on setting a policy on handling the building until all members could be present.

Wanted: Pretty Sausalito Girl

"I want a correspondence with a pretty 16- or 17-year-old girl from your town," an 18-year-old boy from Weingarten, Southern Germany, wrote in a letter read to the Sausalito City Council last night.

It was signed Horst-Dietz Esch.

Mayor Philip S. Ehrlich directed the letter to Councilman Howard Sievers, who has a pretty 16-year-old daughter.

"I will attend to it," Sievers said.

Drunken Driver Is Fined $158

Josephine Jeanette Roberts, 34, of 561 Louis Drive, Novato, drew $158 fine and six months probation yesterday for drunken driving.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court sentenced her for driving while intoxicated along the frontage road at Ignacio last Aug. 22.

Of the $158 fine, the judge ordered her to pay $105 now. If there is no further violation for five months, the remainder of the fine will be suspended.

Creek Bed Cleaning Disputed In Novato

Responsibility for cleaning creek beds to prevent floods was tossed to the Novato City Council last night.

The council, with Mayor Wayne Womack and M. E. Silva absent, in turn tossed the problem to Marvin W. Brigham, county director of public works.

Attorneys for the Nave Shopping Center claimed the City of Novato must assume cleaning of Arroyo Viche Creek bed upsteam from the shopping center. They claimed the County of Marin required them to run the creek through culverts when the shopping center was built, and that each year the county cleaned out the debris to keep the culverts from being clogged. The city must assume this now, the attorneys stated.

Charles A. Joseph, Novato director of public works, told the council that since the city's incorporation, the responsibility of flood control has not been clearly defined.

Councilmen expressed the opinion that it was the responsibility of the flood control district. It asked Joseph to meet with Brigham to clarify the matter.

The council approved the engineers' report of Sutter Hills Assessment District, authorized the sale of $84,000 assessment bonds, and approved the final map of the subdivision on South Novato Boulevard.

In other action, the Novato council:

1. Authorized purchase of a temporary steel building, to cost $926 plus $125 for foundation, to be erected on land rented by the city in the corporation yard of Western Telephone Co.

2. Set for Nov. 14, a public hearing on petitions to install 23 new street lights. The city has $6,000 in its street lighting fund for them.

3. Authorized the city attorney to start legal action against the bonding company of Holiday Manor, Inc., for $1,000 for deficiencies in Holiday Manor, and Diamond Land Co. and Edgewater Land Co. for $500 for deficiencies in Ferris Gardens. The deficiencies are in the sidewalks and streets of the two subdivisions.

4. Refused to take sides in the coming Novato-San Jose school unification election on Nov. 21. The committee for better education asked the council's support.

5. Accepted Marin Golf and Country Club Estates unit 3 as complete.

6. Gave first reading to revisions of the taxicab licensing ordinance, setting up the method of transferring licenses by payment of a transfer fee. But not the annual license fee.

7. Repealed an ordinance allowing angle parking on Highway 101 between Grant and Vallejo avenues. The State Division of Highways refused to allow angle parking beside the highway.

8. Received a request from Anthony C. Franklin of 31 Nova Lane, Novato, for the city to purchase its own ambulance. Police Chief Roy A. McLeran and City Administrator J. Julien Baget are to report to the council on Nov. 14 on the feasibility of the city operating an ambulance.

9. Passed amendments to the city's sales and use tax ordinance to conform with recent changes in state law.

10. Authorized the city administrator to purchase 47 shrubs to replace those destroyed on Sunset Parkway. The council also authorized an increase in the maintenance salary given Victor Bello to keep up the parkway, from $50 to $65, for November through March.

11. Authorized purchase of $1,645 in engineering equipment for the public works department.

12. Received the treasurer's report that the city had $407,606 on hand on Sept. 30.

13. Received the auditor's report for the 1960-61 fiscal year.

New Building Is Frozen In Novato

All new building construction in the area bounded by Grant and Olive avenues, First and Sixth streets in Novato, was frozen last night by the Novato City Council.

The city planning commission asked that it be frozen for a six-month period, pending a study of the area for a commercial zone. Alfred Bellucci of the commission made the request.

The three members of the council — Mayor Wayne Womack and M. E. Silva being absent—made the action temporary until it could be considered by the full council at its meeting Nov. 14.

The planners also asked that the council authorize a study by either the county planning staff or an outside planner.

Soybean Plant Blast Hurts 10 Workers

DECATUR, Ind. (UPI) — An underground explosion and flash fire rocked the huge Central Soya soybean processing plant here today, injuring 10 workers.

Three buildings were blown up, but none of the 17 persons in the immediate area was injured seriously.

Four elevator shafts leading into tunnels were blown out by the blast at 4 a.m. EST. A cement drier building was wrecked, along with two other buildings along the tunnel shafts.

Officials said cause of the explosion was not determined, but they indicated grain dust exploded in the tunnels of the plant, located on the city's northeast edge.

Officials described the plant as the largest soybean facility of its kind in the world with a capacity of 14 million bushels of grain.

Loss Leaders Discussion Set

Loss leaders, price setting and unfair trade practices will be discussed Monday at 8 p.m. at the Greenbrae School at a meeting sponsored by Marin members of the Berkeley Consumers' Co-operative, chairman Mrs. Raymond E. Lewis said today.

Asst. State Atty. Gen. Wallace E. Howland, with the department of consumer frauds, will discuss application of new legislation.

Robert Lee, Berkeley co-op assistant general manager, will talk on problems of grocery merchandising and the co-op's pricing policies. A discussion period will follow.

Wasn't Worth Work

ANADARKO, Okla. (AP) — It took two members of the city council and a rusty knife to pry off the lid of a bucket containing votes on the issue of keeping or getting rid of parking meters. The council showed merchants voted 51-51. The council pigeon-holed the matter.

HEAVY SNOW FALL IN THE ROCKIES

Evergreen trees surrounding a small cabin in the Rockies near Idaho Springs carry a heavy burden of snow after a fall of up to 20 inches covered the ground and closed some passes. After this first heavy snowfall of the season the mountain ski resorts are open for business. (UPI Telephoto)

Sausalito Sets Up Two Hotel Classes

Commercial, Residential Division Voted

The Sausalito City Council last night set up a new policy dividing hotels into two classes —commercial and residential —then voted 3-2 to prohibit commercial hotels from a strip above Bridgeway between Johnson and South streets.

Any hotel with eating or drinking facilities will be considered commercial, the policy declares.

Vote for the two-class hotel policy was unanimous, but Councilman Howard Sievers and George E. Keeney voted "no" on restricting the Johnson-to-South streets strip to residential hotels only.

ACTION PUT OFF

Discussion on possibly placing a similar restriction on land north of Johnson to Filbert street was put off indefinitely.

The council returned to the city planning commission a request by Marian Frick for a permit to build an 80-unit hotel on Bulkley Avenue, saying the commission should see the revised plans. Mrs. Frick's proposed development lies about one-half in a residential zone and half in a commercial zone.

REVISED PLANS

Mrs. Frick presented revised plans showing a main ingress to underground garages 50 feet from Princess Street, showing that the present apartment building will remain and two new buildings added, and showing a total of 240 dining spaces, indoor and out. She said this number of dining spaces compares with the Alta Mira's 520, Spinnaker's 300, Zack's 300, Trident's 223, Casa Madrona's 80, Lito's 88, and Glad Hand's 64.

A petition signed by Milton J. Kodmur and 72 other residents asked the council to deny Mrs. Frick's request, saying the hotel would swell traffic in the area and not preserve the residential character of the city.

AGAINST REQUEST

The city council also received a petition signed by Kelso Norman and 59 others asking that the hotel zone suggested by the planning commission, and approved south of Johnson Street by the council, be upheld.

Several people from the audience spoke for and against the Frick request.

The council said it would write letters to senators and congressmen for a "swell job" they had done in helping to encourage the state to purchase 130 acres of Fort Baker land which straddles Waldo Tunnel.

It also heard a report from Councilman Marjorie Brady that a scrapbook of the "Story of Sausalito" has been prepared for the League of California Cities and will be on display at the city hall for the rest of the week.

COMFORTING INJURED—Anxiety of the moment is registered on the faces of these women who are comforting some children who were injured yesterday at Anoka, Minn., when a dead man's car ploughed into a halloween parade. (AP Wirephoto)

AUTO CRASHES INTO PARADE

Dead Man's Car Strikes Tragedy Into 'World Halloween Capital'

ANOKA, Minn. (UPI)—Doctors listed three persons, two of them children, in critical condition today in the aftermath of a dead man's plunge through a halloween parade.

Two elderly women were killed and a total of 23 persons were injured late yesterday when a runaway car, its driver stricken by a fatal heart attack, plowed into the column of little "spooks" and "goblins" in this self-styled "Halloween Capital of the World."

Victims were mowed down "like a bunch of tenpins" and costumed children were thrown through the air when the car hit.

Six of the victims remained hospitalized. In critical condition were Mrs. Rose Auguston, 54, Michael Aleckson, 4, and Joanne Aubart, 11. A 50-year-old woman was reported in poor condition.

Dead were Otto Erickson, 76, driver of the 13-year-old car which caused the tragedy; Mrs. Harry Laird, 60, and Mrs. George Dowdell, 79, Anoka.

The parade had been an annual event in Anoka ever since 1920, when the town began putting on special halloween events to keep the youngsters from outhouse pranks and insure them a safe, enjoyable holiday.

Just before this year's parade started, a town fire engine which was supposed to follow the marchers and protect them from traffic was called out on a run.

The 42nd annual pageant started as usual yesterday with 5,000 children dressed in weird costumes parading gayly along main street in this Minneapolis suburb.

Erickson was behind the marchers in his ancient car. Suddenly, he slumped over the steering wheel and his foot jammed on the accelerator.

The car roared through a red light, ran into youngsters marching at the rear of the parade, jumped a divider strip in the middle of main street, hit a parked car, shot across an intersection, sheared off a light pole and two parking meters and ran into more persons. It hit another auto and stopped in front of a mortuary. The car door swung open and Erickson's body fell out into the street.

Segregation Ban On Buses Now In Effect

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

A federal ban against segregated facilities in interstate buses and bus terminals went into effect today and Negroes testing the new regulation were arrested by local authorities in several Southern cities.

The manager of the Shreveport, Lo., Trailways Bus Terminal was arrested for complying with the new Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC) ruling which contravenes local segregation laws.

In Montgomery, Ala., a federal judge granted a group of Negro integration leaders an injunction restraining local officials from enforcing segregation laws in terminal facilities. The suit was not directly connected with the new ICC ruling which was requested by U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy following race riots that greeted freedom rider assaults on segregation barriers.

ANOTHER SUIT

Another suit was filed yesterday by the federal government in Oxford, Mass., to prevent Mississippi officials from enforcing state segregation laws in conflict with the new ICC regulations.

Three hours after the ruling went into effect, at midnight, four Negroes asked for service at a Trailways Bus Station restaurant in Atlanta after showing bus tickets to Anniston, Ala., to identify themselves as prospective interstate passengers. Anniston is the city where the first freedom riders incident occurred last May and where eight men now are on trial, charged with burning a passenger bus.

ANSWER IS NO

The restaurant proprietor told them "We don't serve Negroes. You'll have to leave."

The Negroes were arrested and taken to jail by two policemen at the request of the restaurant operator, charged with violating a Georgia "anti-trespass" law passed last year as an anti-integration measure.

Attorney Ehrlich Named To Board

Attorney J. W. Ehrlich of Corte Madera was named yesterday to the board of editorial advisers of the Lawyers Literary Club, a national organization.

Also named to the board was Judge Harold R. Medina of New York.

9 Pit Dogs Impounded By Humane Society

Nine of 10 pit bulldogs found on the Marinwood ranch of Joseph Sequeira have been impounded by the Marin County Humane Society as evidence, executive director Mel L. Morse announced today.

Sequeira and two others are accused of allowing trained pit bulls to engage in fights with other dogs. The charges are misdemeanors. However, Deputy Dist. Atty. P. Roy Vallarino said he is investigating the possibility that a felony charge can be filed on the basis that the three defendants engaged in a conspiracy to commit the misdemeanors.

Those impounded include five grown dogs and three puppies about six months old.

A black mongrel found badly chewed inside the Sequeira barn on the night of Oct. 25 died the next day at a veterinary hospital. A brown and white dog found cowering in the same room has been reunited with the owners in Petaluma. The owner of the black dog has not been ascertained. Humane Society officials said this dog may also have come from the Petaluma area.

Rep. Miller Plans Talks In County

Congressman Clem Miller (D-Corte Madera) will wind up a tour of the southern portion of the Redwood Empire with speaking dates in Marin County next Monday and Tuesday and on Nov. 12, 13 and 14.

On Monday at 7:30 p.m., the Congressman will speak to the Fairfax Lions Club at Deer Park Villa.

On Tuesday at 10 a.m. he will be at Bolinas to review the harbor project there with the Marin County Board of Supervisors and the Army Corps of Engineers.

At 1 p.m. the same day he will speak to the Awareness Club at the Gallery in Mill Valley. At 8 p.m. he will meet with the Mill Valley City Council, county supervisors and Army engineers to discuss flood control problems on streams emptying into Richardson Bay.

A reception for the congressman will be held at Bob's of Marin in Corte Madera on Nov. 12 from 4 to 6 p.m. On Nov. 13 at 8:30 p.m., he will speak to the San Anselmo American Legion Post at the Log Cabin in San Anselmo.

Scholarships For 'Country Doctors'

ATLANTA (AP) — Georgia is investing $158,150 this year in a priceless product, "country doctors" for small towns and rural areas.

Each scholarship-loan amounts to $1,250 a year. The doctors may repay it by practicing in a rural community of 5,000 or less for one year for each $1,000 received under the plan.

The program was started eight years ago and currently doctors are repaying past loans by practicing in 21 small towns. This year's budget covers 33 new scholarships and 94 renewals.

Tentative Meeting Set On Transit

A Marin County meeting on rapid transit was set tentatively for 3 p.m. Nov. 14 by county supervisors yesterday after consideration of a sobering letter from the Bay Area Rapid Transit District.

The letter covered a report termed the culmination of 10 years of study. It ordered that a public hearing be held, but it made clear that as of now Marin County is excluded from rapid transit consideration. A point not covered was Marin's past investment. Supervisors indicated there could be no recovery.

The Nov. 14 meeting seemed intended as a planning session preliminary to the public hearing, although there was virtually no discussion.

According to the district letter, though Marin has been excluded because of apparent exclusion of use of the Golden Gate Bridge for rapid transit. In case further investigation reverses this, the district may again include Marin.

The supervisors also:

1. Approved an agreement for supply and distribution of natural gas to the civic center.

2. Set for hearing at 2 p.m. Nov. 20 abandonment of a section of Point Reyes-Petaluma road and parts of High and East Streets, Tomales.

3. Ordered abandonment of a six-mile section of San Geronimo-Nicasio road affected by the new Nicasio Dam.

4. Set for Nov. 27 hearing a revised building ordinance and housing code, among other things removing the agricultural exemption heretofore enjoyed by farm homes, and boosting the fee schedule 10 per cent.

5. Approved in principle Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety's proposals to provide office staffing of "four and one-half girls" by creating one new position but letting Mrs. June Hamilton go on half-time.

Dentistry Solves Gold Color Problem

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Dentistry has solved the problem of using gold for its good filling qualities without making a patient's mouth look like a jewelry store window.

Dr. John F. Johnson of the Indiana University School of Dentistry told a dental meeting here recently that porcelain veneers baked to the gold filling surface cover the gold and closely resemble the color and surface texture of natural teeth.

The new process is based on a natural binding that exists between gold and porcelain when they are baked together.

Conservation League

The Belvedere-Tiburon Conservation League will meet at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow in the home of Mrs. Benton B. Mathews, 53 Peninsula Road, Belvedere, to plan strategy in its campaign for acquisition of downtown Tiburon's one-quarter mile of waterfront and 17 acres of tidelands "by any means we can," said Mrs. Palmer Field, president.

Street Is Speedway

OSHKOSH, Wis. (AP) — Six Oshkosh residents have petitioned the City Council to change the name of their street to Webster. They claim motorists are taking too literally the present name: Speedway Avenue.

Parking Ticket? —He'll Fix It

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Mayor Dominick J. DeLucco has a system for fixing parking tickets for other people—he pays them himself.

He tells people at every state and national convention he addresses that he'll take care of any tickets they get in Hartford. He says he sympathizes with their parking problems.

He figures the policy has cost him more than $140 since he put it into effect last January.

Heavy Fighting Breaks Out On Old Battleground In Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI) — Heavy weapons fire thundered across the Plain of Jars today in an apparent new outbreak of fighting between anti-Communist guerrillas and Laotian insurgents.

Inforced sources said the sound of artillery or mortars was heard clearly in the town of Xieng Khousang, stronghold of the pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels. But no details of the fighting were available immediately.

The Xieng Khouang market place was reported deserted and shops closed, just as they were last August when guerrillas sent mortar fire into the city and hurled small arms and machine-gun attacks against its outskirts.

The leftist rebel command warned the International Control Commission earlier today that roads in the area were too dangerous for travel.

Cake Recipe That Hasn't Failed Yet

Fusselman's Civil Defense Plan Delayed

Supervisor Will Prepare Statement For Next Monday

Revelation of a "Fusselman Plan for Civil Defense" was postponed to next Monday afternoon's meeting of Marin supervisors yesterday after Chairman William D. Fusselman had earlier told a gathering of peace demonstrators that he'd explain his ideas in detail later in the day.

Shortly before adjournment Fusselman said he had decided to prepare a written statement, in view of the furore over fall-out shelters and similarly debatable issues.

Civil defense kept bobbing up throughout the afternoon session. It started with clarification of Fusselman's views to the peace demonstrators by Supervisor George Ludy before Fusselman arrived, then a speech by county medical director Rafael G. Dufficy Jr., next a long and only partly read letter by Planning Commissioner John S. Switzer of Point Reyes Station, a discussion of civic center shelter possibilities by architect Aaron Green, and even civil defense aspects of a possible new county hospital.

Supervisor Ludy said: "I feel that we don't know enough yet and that spending for community shelters would be a waste. I would like to see more study made before we spend any money." The audience applauded.

Dufficy noted the presence of Tamalpais High School students, and addressed himself to them, admonishing against fear of the unknown, which he said applies to fall-out. He was also applauded.

The partially read Switzer letter was addressed to civil defense headquarters in Washington and dealt with bomb shelter food supplies. (It appears in the "What Our Readers Say" columns on page 38 of today's Independent-Journal.)

Green said there is not proper space or other facilities for a central communications center, requiring 15,000 square feet at the civic center. He said the upper part of the administration building will be too light for shelter purposes, but "the lower level is felt to provide for a quick emergency fall-out shelter, but only one section has plumbing."

During a presentation on possible private construction of a new county hospital by interests headed by Frank E. Marsh, who had in mind the north slope of Lucas Valley, Fusselman advocated the south slope as offering better shelter in case of enemy attack.

Board Asked To Look Again At Marin City

Marin County supervisors yesterday asked the county planning commission to take another look at privately owned areas in Marin City and consider ways of making free enterprise a bit freer.

Supervisor J. Walter Blair said the commission's notion of planned community district with one-acre minimum lot sizes was pretty tough. He wanted consideration given to 7,500-square foot and 10,000-square foot lots as well as to turning a single-family residence area into multiple.

Hearing that architectural supervision was part of the planners' plans, Blair inquired suspiciously, "Are you going to tell them what color they can paint their houses?"

It appeared that might be part of the idea, though Supervisor George Ludy — previously a planning commissioner—strove to soothe Blair with word that supervision was mainly to make such plans were properly executed.

"If there's a feeling that bureaucracy is at work," said Chairman William D. Fusselman finally, "come in here and this bureaucracy will take care of the other bureaucracy. There's no expectation that anybody will be capricious or obnoxious."

On other planning matters the supervisors:

1. Put over to Nov. 7 the question of whether to activate last year's partially completed county excavation ordinance, brought up again by the Federation of Improvement Clubs but subject to a 3-3 tie vote in the planning commission last week.
2. Threw to Fire Chief Charles Reilley and Supervisor William Gnoss the job of settling with the Air Pollution Control Board whether Reilley may proceed to burn a final 29 Marin City duplexes. Gnoss is a member of the smog district board.
3. Supported the planners in approval of part of the map of 49-acre Mount Tiburon subdivision on the Tiburon Peninsula, so that work could start despite questions as to an ultimate "ridge road."
4. Set for Nov. 21 hearing two matters involving reclassification of William N. Denton's 100 acres adjoining Bel Air Estates on either side of the railroad; also reclassification of H. Q. Wright Jr.'s eight and one-half acres west of Highway 101 opposite the county airport north of Novato.
5. Finally cleared the long-discussed Sun Valley Cleaners use permit at Terra Linda Shopping Center.

The Convincer

NEW ALBANY, Ind. (AP) — Arthur Hook may have to review his contempt for superstition. Hook lives at 1313 East Oak Street, and he asked for license plate WW 13 for his car. He got the plate, and a few days later somebody stole his car.

DIRTY TRICK FOR TREAT LAST NIGHT

"Trick or treat," said the little girl, about 6.

O'Kelly smiled and gave candy to both. The woman then told the child, "You run out to the car dear, and wait for mother."

As the little girl tripped out, the woman fished a pistol out of her purse.

"Trick or treat," she said pointing the weapon at O'Kelly.

He handed her $30. She fled.

Zoning Plea May Be Withdrawn

Charles T. Kendall, owner of the Garden Spot Nursery in Larkspur, is expected to withdraw his application to rezone part of his property at the Larkspur City Council meting today at 8 p.m. in the city hall.

Marin Junior College District trustees last Thursday authorized condemnation proceedings to acquire the property for expansion of College of Marin.

Kendall had asked that two small parcels on either side of the nursery rezoned from residential to commercial. The nursery itself is zoned commercial.

Also on tonight's agenda are consideration of a request by the Larkspur recreation commission for application for federal aid on purchase of property for a park; improvement plans for the Larkspur Plaza, and a discussion of the use of Eastman Hall at William and Holcomb streets.

A.F. Bomber Hits Test Site Tower

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—An Air Force B-57 jet bomber flew into a radio tower at the Nevada test site during the latest underground nuclear test, the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) announced today.

The AEC said the $100,000 structure was destroyed and the bomber's wing was damaged. It landed without incident at Nellis Air Force Base here—about 60 miles from the accident site.

There apparently were no injuries.

Civic Center's Roof Will Be Bright Blue

A blue roof will adorn the administration building of the Marin County Civic Center, county supervisors were told yesterday by architect Aaron Green.

The supervisors voted approval of a recommendation by county communications director Mansfield Lewis that there be no secondary PBX installations behind the main switchboard.

Green said experiments have disclosed that there should be a change in the roof color, previously proposed as metallic of gold or copper sheen. "I personally am glad because I always favored a blue roof," said Green.

"How bright?" asked Chairman William D. Fusselman.

"Quite bright, a heavy intense blue," Green replied. "It will just fade away into the sky."

Supervisor William Gnoss said he'd already observed some blue on the dome. Green said yes, but that wasn't the final hue, just some undercoating.

He said he hoped for bids soon on landscaping.

Lewis's letter on phone policy had been requested by Green and Lewis was emphatic on the point that study and conferences had it shown it would not be advisable to let departments have their own PBX set-ups beyond the main board.

"There may be some degree of resistance by one or two departments," County Administrator Alan Bruce cautioned. "I am convinced that Lewis has the right approach. If it doesn't work, a change can be made later."

The board was unanimous in backing Lewis.

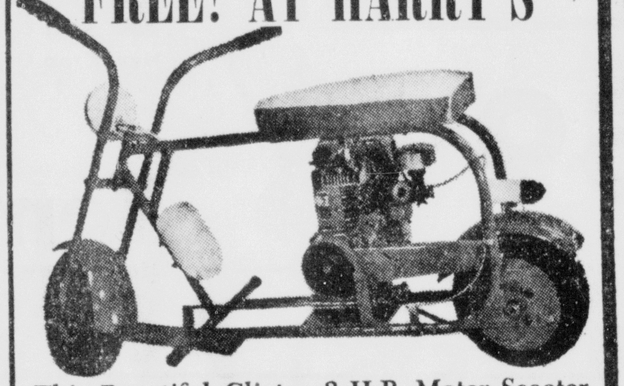

Sort Of Like Friendly FBI

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — By fingerprinting her guests, Mrs. Rodger Tenney is entertaining them and designing an unusual back door.

She gives each guest a six-inch-square ceramic tile decorated only with a pastel underglaze. She also supplies several deeper-colored liquid glazes.

Guests are asked to dip their fingers in a glaze and make fingerprints on the tiles. Then they make designs around the fingerprints and sign their names. Mrs. Tenney fires the tiles and glues them to a panel on her back door.

West Berlin Police Check Red Papers

BERLIN (UPI)—West Berlin police today began checking identity papers of all Soviet and other Communist diplomats crossing from East to West Berlin in non-military cars.

Passengers in official Soviet vehicles, whether in civilian dress or uniform, were exempt from the new regulations and were waved through border checkpoints without delay.

It was learned West Berlin police took the action because they believed Communist diplomats have used private cars to bring undesirable East Germans into West Berlin.

When the new rule first applied, there was considerable confusion over who was affected.

A police spokesman had announced earlier that all Soviet vehicles were to be stopped and all Russian civilians subject to identity checks.

But police on the border were waving official vehicles through and stopping only private cars with East German license plates. After the check of papers, these cars also were waved through.

Police carried lists of names, presumably of Communist diplomats accredited to East Berlin.

A U.S. spokesman said the Allies asked the Russians some time ago for a list of license plate numbers to facilitate border handling, but received no reply.

The East German newspaper Neues Deutschland told its readers for the first time today that Soviet tanks were used on the Berlin city border last week.

The Communist newspaper did not tell its readers when the tanks were used, or that they were still hidden near the Friedrichstrasse checkpoint in a bombed-out ruin in East Berlin.

Marin In Second Place In Bay United Crusade

Marin County has risen to second place among counties in the current campaign of the Bay Area United Crusade, retiring campaign chairman James B. Black Jr. told a luncheon group at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco yesterday.

Marin now has collected $72,350 or 55.2 per cent of its goal, he said. Alameda County is in first place.

The crusade as a whole had collected $7,046,050 or 64.1 per cent of its current goal of 11 million dollars yesterday, Black said.

Included in the overall total was the largest amount contributed by a group of employees in Bay Area history—$256,000 donated by employees of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

"What has been reported today indicates that for the first time in the history of the United Crusade, we can reach our goal," Fleishhacker said. "All the signs are good. However, there are only a few days remaining to finish the job."

He asked the more than 350 campaign workers at the luncheon to redouble their efforts during the remainder of this week to insure "campaign victory" before Thanksgiving.

NEW 'GUARDIANS' FOR LIBRARY —Where they came from, no one knew, but two matching stone lions appeared on the lawn of the San Rafael Library during the night, along with "Stop for Pedestrians" and "San Francisco 18 Miles" signs. The obvious explanation: Halloween. (Independent-Journal photo)

AUDITOR'S REPORT

Novato Spent Less Than It Took In

The City of Novato last year spent less money than it took in, according to the auditor's report which was submitted to the city council last night.

The council accepted without comment the report of Halver D. Klinker, of San Rafael, public accountant.

Klinker's report shows that the city spent $173,396.32 during the fiscal year. It received $336,704.76, or $163,308.44 more than it spent.

The city spent $55,113.50 for public works; $49,081.70 for public safety; $67,118.72 for general government, and $2,082.40 for miscellaneous.

It received $147,373.16 from taxes; $151,358.04 for subventions and grants; $37,313.04 for licenses, permits and fees, and $660.52 from miscellaneous sources.

The city had budgeted $215,354.99 but only spent $173,396.32.

The audit showed the city had $473,122.28 on deposit at the end of the fiscal year.

Wages accounted for approximately 32 per cent of the expenses of the city, according to the report.

The only change in operation suggested by the audit was that the city set up a "working capital reserve" and remove the money from "unappropriated surplus."

The city has no bonded indebtedness.

No Cure For This

ARGOS, Ind. (AP) — This advertisement appeared in the Argos Reflector: "Warning — Fishing Pox. Carl's barbershop closed Friday and following week. Let it grow or go across the street."

Junior College Accrediting Plan Favored

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK (UPI) — The California Junior College Assn. was on record today unanimously favoring a new accreditation system for the state's educational system.

A report from the group's accrediting commission headed by Dr. Wade Thomas, president of Santa Monica City College, recommended approval subject to similar action by other segments of higher education and secondary schools.

Under the proposal, the Western College Assn., the accrediting organization, will become the Western Assn. for Schools and Colleges. The association would be empowered to accredit colleges and high schools, effective July 1, 1962.

The association anticipates approval of the proposal by the four-year colleges and high schools.

Police Question Suspect In City's Hotel Fires

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A tall crew-cut man afflicted with acne was in police custody today as the prime arson suspect in a series of downtown hotel fires here Monday night.

The suspect, James R. Aydt, 24, admitted he was among a crowd of 600 people watching a fire at the Stewart Hotel, the first of nine hotel blazes which broke out in rapid succession.

Aydt, who has served terms for vagrancy, told authorities he left the scene after two minutes and went directly to the West Hotel where he said he remained the rest of the night.

Several minutes after the Stewart Hotel fire, a blaze was reported at the Fielding Hotel just across the street. Five minutes later a curtain went up in flames at the St. Francis Hotel around the corner.

A tenant there reported seeing a tall youth with a pimply face dancing away from the building laughing to himself.

During the next few hours firemen raced to blazes at the Clift, Bellevue, Marlow, Sir Francis Drake, YMCA, Owen, and Sheraton-Palace Hotels.

Adyt attracted authorities' attention when a policeman reported observing a man fitting his description at the scene of the Stewart and Fielding Hotel fires. The officer said the suspect was watching the fires with great interest.

GOP Campaign Opens —With A Real Bang

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Republicans in suburban Amherst hope their campaign fares better than the 16-foot balloon they launched to christen the campaign headquarters.

The balloon exploded when it was poked by the radio aerial of a passing car.

MARIN'S SPOOKY 'FUN'

Halloween Celebrant Shot; Kids Lay Dozens Of Eggs

and Cijos streets in San Rafael, police reported.

Someone in the party took the license number of the car from which the objects were thrown, and police apprehended Carl Reese Lehman, 18, of 240 Cobblestone Drive, Marinwood, and Kenneth Lewis Bockrath, 18, of 239 Mountain View Avenue, San Rafael, and two juvenile companions. All were released with a warning.

A woman driver appeared at San Rafael police station early in the evening, dripping wet, to report she had been soaked by a water bomb thrown from another car. From the license number, police traced Alan Maurice Farnham, 18, of Ross. He and three juvenile companions were apprehended and ordered to report to police.

Two white granite lions were discovered early today sitting on the lawn of the San Rafael Library. Between the lions, origin of which was unknown, was a "Stop for Pedestrians" sign.

Police nabbed "juvenile spooks" in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery at the end of Fifth Avenue on suspicion of looking for headstones to overturn or carry away. A false fire alarm was turned in at 10:10 p.m. at First and E Streets. A stop sign was uprooted at Fifth Avenue and California Street. Automatic lawn sprinklers were turned on in Sun Valley.

Radio station KTIM-FM was knocked off the air briefly when someone broke into the transmitter station on Robert Dollar Drive and tampered with equipment.

In all, San Rafael police reported 25 complaints between 2 p.m. yesterday and 6:58 a.m. today, when the stone lions were discovered.

A water-filled balloon smashed a window of a car driven by Mrs. A. Beban of 241 California Avenue, Mill Valley, at Camino Alto and Sycamore Avenue. The bomb-thrower got away in another car.

A clerk at Jolly Store in Mill Valley reported to police that "we sold eggs to the teen-agers and now they're throwing them back at us." Evidence of the large egg purchases by youngsters was plain throughout downtown Mill Valley.

A large console television set was found at 7:15 p.m. in the middle of the Throckmorton and Blithedale avenues intersection, with an unlit lantern on top.

Police took the TV set and lantern to the city hall. Two hours later, an old white overstuffed chair appeared in the same intersection.

In Sausalito, someone hit the piston head of the police motorcycle with an egg. Officer John Lunt "had eggs Benedict for breakfast," reported police Chief Howard Goerndt.

In general, things were quiet in Sausalito, however, Goerndt reported. A community children's parade last evening went off well.

They were quiet also in San Anselmo, according to Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani, but a window of the home of Mrs. Walter Hoots at 203 Floribel Avenue was broken with a rock.

Police Chief Clifton Cordes of Fairfax said one youngster from whom he confiscated a supply of eggs claimed he had them "only for defensive purposes."

Larkspur police arrested Thomas E. Rogers, 18, of 272 Madrone Avenue, Larkspur, after he drove a car onto the lawn of William Nigh at 6 College Avenue and knocked over bushes and fence. Officers George Newman and James Neubert nabbed him as he was driving away. Charged with hit-run driving, he was released on $276 bail.

Three 15-year-old girls were arrested in Larkspur after shooting a B-B gun and throwing a pumpkin through a screen door at the home of Mrs. Mary Keltner at 31 Midway. Officers caught the three in a 75-yard uphill chase.

Eight dozen eggs and about 100 water balloons were confiscated by Larkspur police.

Mrs. Rosalie Sloan of 204 El Prado, San Rafael Meadows, found white enamel splattered over her car, she told sheriff's officers.

Paris, Algeria Violence Is Widespread

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI) — French police and soldiers battled Moslem demonstrators marking the seventh anniversary of the Algerian war in widespread violence across France and Algeria today.

At midday, the French administration in Algiers issued a communique saying 30 Moslems were killed and 70 persons wounded up to that time in clashes throughout the country. But as reports rolled in from the outlying areas, the unofficial death toll passed 40 and was expected to go much higher.

Hundreds of thousands of Moslems demonstrated in towns and villages all over Algeria. For the most part, they were kept within the native quarters of the cities by a massive turnout of soldiers, riot police and gendarmes.

A small plastic bomb was set off at the end of a rally in the left bank student quarter of Paris. Police said 25 persons were slightly injured by flying glass.

The city's entire 20,000-man police force was on alert and was reinforced by 5,000 special riot police from the provinces.

Laborer Is Jailed For Assault

Sheriff's deputies this afternoon jailed Booker T. Givins of Marin City on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder in the knifing of Doyle Lee Lewis in the latter's Marin City apartment at 10:25 a.m.

Givins was apprehended after a short search in Marin City.

Sheriff's Sgt. Guy Gibbs said Givins, who is about 30 and lives in Apt. 17 at 419 Drake Avenue, is alleged to have stabbed Lewis in the back with a pocket knife after the two had an argument in which Givins accused Doyle of stealing his glasses. Lewis, 52, lives in Apt. 14 at the same address. Both men are laborers.

Lewis was in "satisfactory" condition at San Rafael General Hospital where he was treated for a two and one-half to three-inch stab wound near his left shoulder blade. He was to be released this afternoon.

Santa Venetia Girl Is Struck By Auto

Kim Brodnik, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brodnik of 632 Galerita Way, Santa Venetia, suffered minor injuries last night when she was hit by a car in front of her home about 5 o'clock.

Kim had a bump on her head and bruises about the face, arms and legs. She was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Mrs. Brodnik said she was hosting a group of Bluebirds at her home. She heard girls screaming outside and found Kim had been bumped by a car driven by Mrs. Robert Davenport of Santa Venetia.

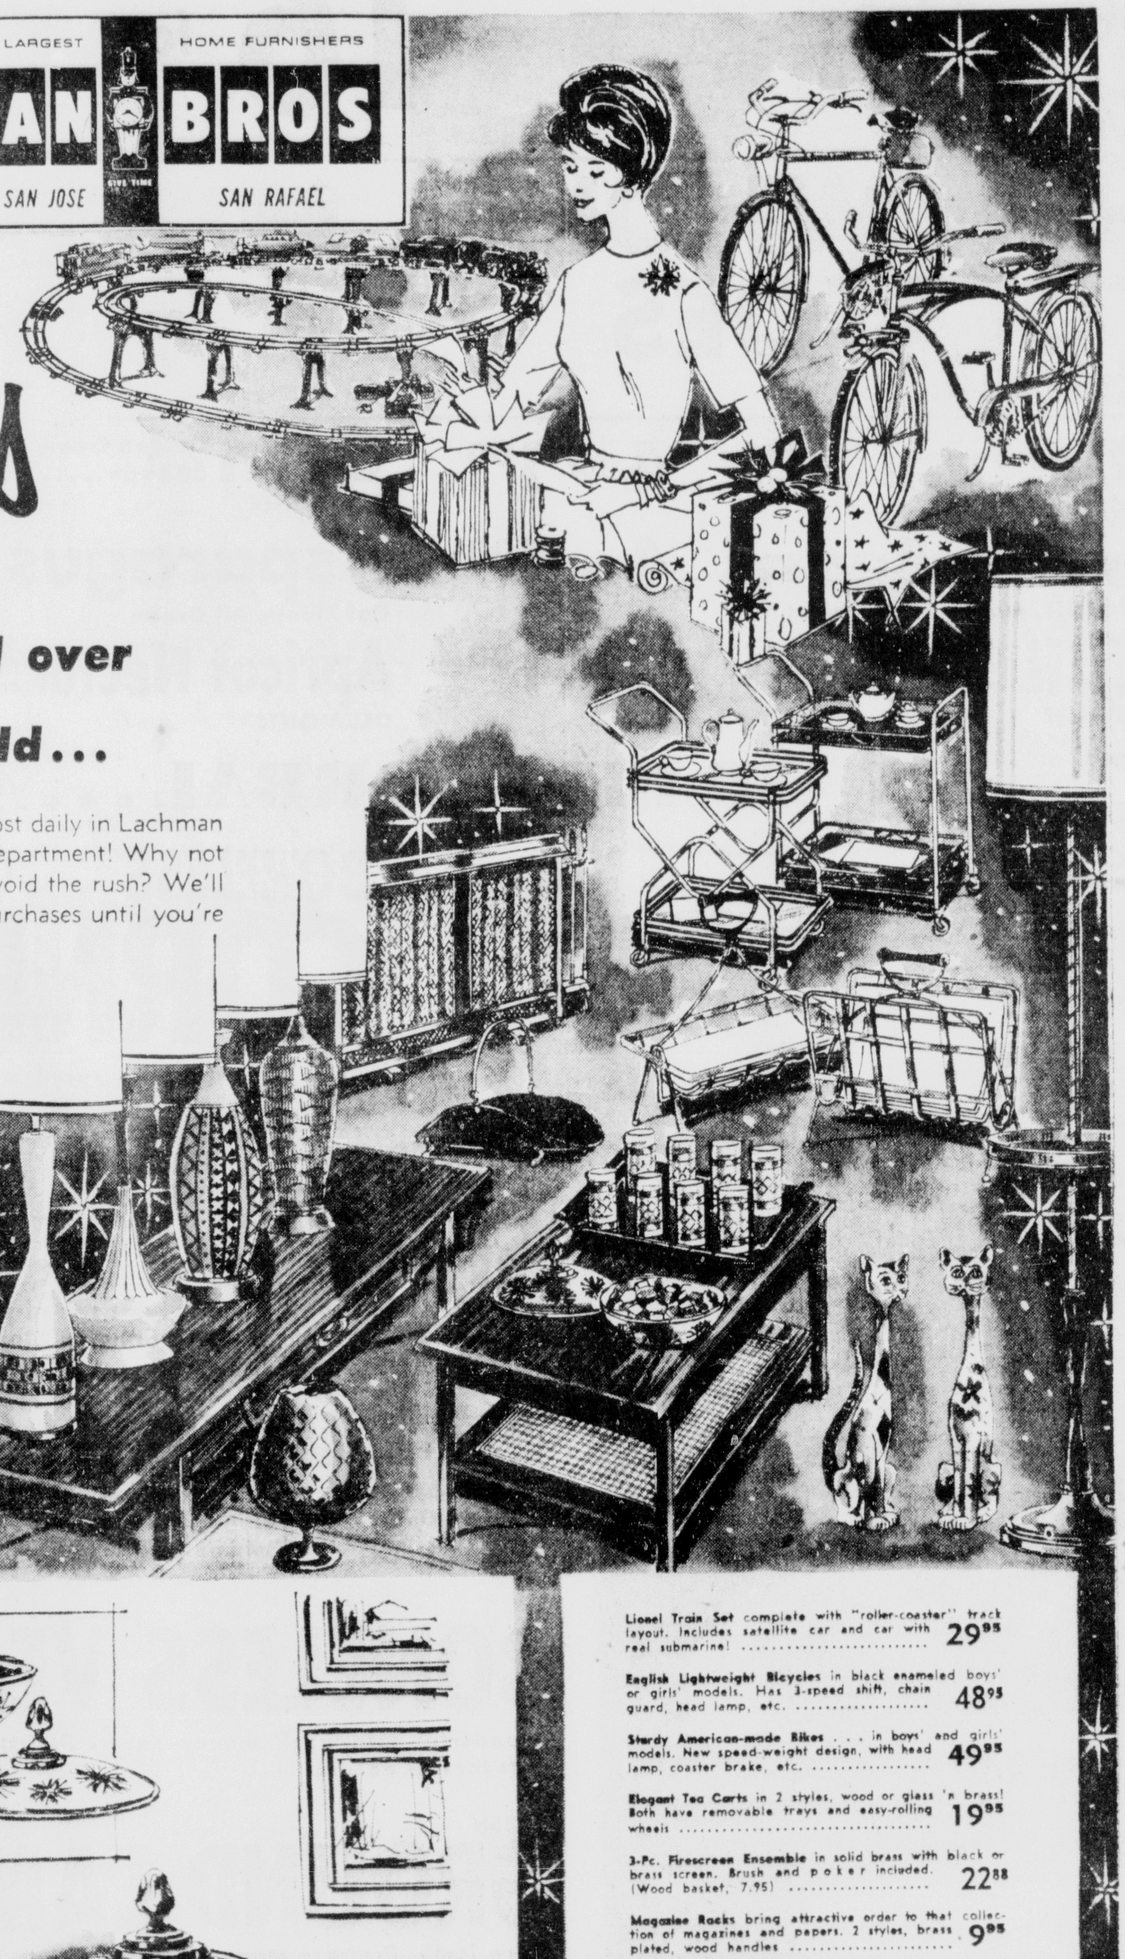

Though waves move across the surface of a lake or sea, the water itself merely rises and falls. A given volume of water sinks back into almost the same place.

If You Haven't Got Tax Bill, Get In Touch With Collector

Marin County taxpayers who have not received their tax bills should contact County Tax Collector M. F. Donohue, the tax collector announced today.

He said 62,030 bills have been mailed out. They represent a total charge of $19,500,534.90 plus $2,310,721.40 to public utilities. The grand total comes to $21,811,256.30, or $3,355,711.34 more than last year. In addition, $1,070,000 in personal property taxes has been collected since July 1.

Many of the bills have been returned either "unclaimed," "sold," or "owner moved." Owners of these properties should contact him, Donohue announced.

First installment payments must be paid by Dec. 11, or a penalty will be imposed.

Missionary Interviews Tomorrow At Seminary

Interviews will be held Nov. 14 and 15 at Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary for single women and medical personnel interested in becoming missionaries. Appointments may be made through Dr. L. A. Brown, chairman of the Missions committee.

There will also be interviews for missionaries tomorrow for persons in categories other than single women and medical personnel.

The owner of the theater in which Abraham Lincoln was shot, John T. Ford, was a prominent figure in theatrical circles of his day. He also had properties in Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Spartans Favored, Oregon And Cal Doomed, Says AP

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Every so often it pays to be reminded of the late Bob Zuppke's statement that a football is a prolate spheroid filled with crazy bounces. Last week there were 17 crazy bounces that were not anticipated in 55 chances. That's .691.

Now for this week's bounces:

Michigan State over Minnesota: Sandy Stephens has been as good a quarterback as there is in the country for the Gophers these past two weeks but he hasn't encountered such a horde of talent as Michigan State will display.

Mississippi over Louisiana State: The Ole Miss defense is so stingy it has given up only 13 points to a total of six foes.

Ohio State over Iowa: Bob Ferguson, the Ohio State fullback, is the difference.

Georgia Tech over Florida, Colorado over Missouri, Notre Dame over Navy, Purdue over Illinois, Utah State over Brigham Young, Northwestern over Indiana, Kansas over Nebraska, Penn State over Maryland, Syracuse over Pitt, Washington over Southern Cal, Miami (Fla.) over Georgia.

FAR WEST: Air Force over Colorado State University, Wyoming over Arizona, University of Pacific over Idaho, Utah over New Mexico, Oregon State over Washington State, Arizona State over San Jose State, Stanford over Oregon, UCLA over California.

EAST: Army over Detroit, Iowa State over Boston College, Princeton over Brown, Cornell over Columbia, Holy Cross over Dayton, Rutgers over Lafayette, Colgate over Lehigh, Dartmouth over Yale.

SOUTH: Auburn over Wake Forest, Clemson over Tulane, West Virginia over George Washington, Kentucky over Florida State, Memphis State over Furman, North Caroline State over Mississippi Southern, Richmond over Virginia Tech, South Carolina over Virginia, William & Mary over Davidson, North Carolina over Tennessee.

MIDWEST: Bowling Green over West Texas State, Oklahoma over Kansas State, Cincinnati over Tulsa, Wichita over Oklahoma State, Xavier over Louisville.

SOUTHWEST: Arkansas over Texas A & M, Baylor over Texas Christian, Texas Western over Hardin Simmons, North Texas State over Drake, Rice over Texas Tech, New Mexico State over Trinity.

S.R. GRABS 'C' B-BALL MCAL CROWN

The San Rafael Bulldogs have clinched the Marin County Athletic League 1961 "C" Basketball competition by defeating runner-up Novato High yesterday in a 29-27 thriller.

With only two games left San Rafael carries a 10-0 won-loss record, and Novato a 7-3.

In other "C" games yesterday Marin Catholic beat Redwood in a sudden death 26 to 24 ballgame, and Tamalpais easily subdued Terra Linda 24-10.

High point men for the contests were Ed Brown (10), San Rafael; Dan O'Brien (14) Tamalpais, and Mike Russell and Norm Martin (7) of the Marin Catholic - Redwood game.

HELP FOR THE JUNIOR GIANTS

Ex-Oregon Coach Dies After Making Speech

MEDFORD, Ore. (AP) — Jim Aiken, former University of Oregon football coach, collapsed suddenly and died after speaking at a banquet in Medford last night.

Aiken, 60, presently athletic director of Roseburg, Ore., High School, had just addressed a meeting of the Medford Linebackers Club. He was pronounced dead a few minutes later.

Toward Settlement

Odds Are That Detroit Will Also Get A Shot At Shotgun

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The odds are that Detroit's Lions will face the same shotgun offense that annihilated them 49-0 even though their Sunday's opponents, the San Francisco 49ers, have lost two in a row.

And the hometowners are in the middle of a roaring controversy over their spread formation plus extras.

"Look at it this way," George Wilson, coach of the Lions, said Tuesday, "The 49ers have been using the shotgun exclusively for too long now for them to change back to a fulltime straight T."

Forty Niner coach Red Hickey said: "You've only got so much practice time between games. If you practice either the spread or the T, you've got to forget more or less about the other one.

"And anyway, it's not a formation that wins a ball game exclusively. It's more the mental attitude of a team. If you're ready to go to war, you'll win."

In any case, both Wilson and Hickey admitted that Sunday's game is it, barring later miracles. The two teams are tied for third in the National Football League's Western Conference, each with a 4-3 record.

What's more, Sunday could be a day to pick up ground for the winner. Conference leader Green Bay (6-1) is at always troublesome Baltimore, and second place Chicago (5-2) invades the Eastern Conference leaders at Philadelphia.

Kenny Sears Is Doubtful Saints' Starter Tonight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Former Kenny Sears is a doubtful starter for the San Francisco Saints against the Kansas City Steers in their American Basketball League game at Civic Auditorium tonight.

Sears came up with a severe charley horse in the Saints' opening game against the Los Angeles Jets and later discovered he also had hurt a wrist in a fall. So the 99-96 initial win, if it keeps Sears out of tonight's lineup, may prove costly.

On Again, Off Again Yacht Season Begins

By AL MATSON

It is paradoxical that a yacht club will hold commemorative services for the departed season one week and, at the same time, be busily preparing for a full-blown regatta the following Sunday.

In the words of an apt French quotation, "The king is dead, long live the king." But that, in a sense, reflects the activities of the Corinthian Yacht Club. Last Saturday they held their traditional "closing dance." Not too long ago that cognomen was quite meaningful as the affair did mark the end of yachting for the year.

But today there is no such respite for the sailing buff, nor his topsiders, as the sport is carried on through most of the calendar year. And said club is largely responsible.

Ten years ago it instituted the mid winter series and with each session, the fleet of participants has shown a healthy increase. Next Sunday, the first regatta of the mid-winter five race series for 1961-62 will get underway.

To further attest to the popularity of winter sailing, the Golden Gate Yacht Club has also got into the act with a four-race program, the first contest scheduled for the following Sunday, Nov. 12.

A few notes from the ravelled cuff: Dick Oesterman of San Rafael recently launched his new 34-foot yawl, Helripa, and is raring to prove her sailing qualities in next Sunday's regatta. The Helripa was designed and built by Barney Nichol in his Alameda Yard. It will fly the colors of the Golden Gate Yacht Club and be berthed at the Loch Lomond Marina.

A notable addition to the bay fleet is George Renfro's 55-foot schooner, Samarang. Built by the South Coast yard in 1934, the yacht has been handsomely maintained and could well start on a world wide cruise on short notice.

The Samarang was acquired by Renfro from the estate of W. L. Collyer of Los Angeles who met a tragic death in a plane accident last spring. Big boat row in the Corinthian Harbor is the Samarang's new home.

The BULLPEN

With JOHN L. CONNOLLY

Judge Landis Would Never Have Tolerated Gambling Fraternization

CONNOLLY

It's a good thing for organized baseball that Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, once the high commissioner of baseball, isn't around. If he were, you'd never gaze upon the faces of Carl Hubbell, Lefty Grove and Warren Spahn proudly displaying a plaque from one of America's biggest gambling institutions, Tahoe's Harrahs Club.

But there they were—the three of 'em—Hubbell-Grove-Spahn, their kissers spread with laughter and their eyes sparkling. You'd have thought they just won the U. S. Open or the British Open golf championships.

Hubbell of the Giants, Grove of the late Athletics and Spahn of the present Milwaukee Braves. What a sight to gaze on. They not only seemed and looked proud but they were the picture of self contentment, standing there and posing for pictures taken in the shadows of the gambling casino at the state-line.

AND NOT ONLY the three greatest southpaw pitchers in the game were there, but dozens of others like Willie Mays, Jimmy Davenport, Manager Alvin Dark and, oh, so many prominent names in our national pastime.

The very thought of being seen in a gambling jernt, let alone being a guest of the same jernt, is frightening to any old timer who remembers how the late Judge Landis felt toward organized gambling, in any form.

Landis, as high commissioner of baseball, wouldn't allow players in organized baseball to sell pari-mutuel tickets at racetracks during the off season. He once wired umpire Beans Reardon to stay away from even attending races at Santa Anita Park.

Judge Landis wouldn't allow the late Charles Strub to hold his stock in the San Francisco ball club while acting as owner of the Santa Anita track. He wouldn't allow Strub to be a director in a baseball club in which he held the majority of the stock, so the first chance Strub got he sold his stock to Paul Fagan and forever withdrew from organized baseball.

I happen to know Doc Strub was given a very special dispensation from Judge Landis with regard to his baseball holdings. Landis never once relinquished his vigilance on any activity Strub might have with the Seals. And Strub knew it and stayed as far away from the Seals Stadium as he could.

THERE MAY be nothing to worry about between baseball players accepting a freeload on entertainment or such with the gambling casinos of Nevada. We have no quarrel with Harrahs. In fact we hold a credit card there. But for players to congregate there in the off-season and to actually mix with the casino management is something we can't quite fathom. Especially when Ford Frick, high commissioner of baseball and himself a former baseball writer, knew what the first high commissioner of baseball thought of associating baseball with gambling.

Landis was unforgiving to organized gambling. He felt they tried to wreck baseball in 1919 when the Chicago White Sox and Cincinnati became involved in a scandal.

Today one of the biggest threats to organized baseball is organized gambling. The same places where the ball players congregate in the winter set the odds on each and every game. They set odds at the outset of a season on the pennant chances of the clubs.

I believe, and so do a lot of others, that Ford Frick owes an apology to organized baseball for being so lax in his policing of the sport as to allow some of the finest names in the sport to try and whiten up an enterprise whose members took their best shot at ruining baseball. And for that matter ALMOST got away with it.

Board Discusses Houston Colts, Association Fight

NEW YORK (AP)—A board of arbitration sits down behind closed doors today to try and settle the indemnity dispute between the American Association and the Houston Colts, scheduled to begin play in baseball's National League next season.

The problem became a matter for the board when the disputing parties were unable to reach agreement on what sum the Houston organization should pay the Triple A minor league in return for moving into the league's territory.

Knickerbockers

The New York Knicerbockers, who won only 21 of 79 games last season made it four victories in six starts last night, beating the Cincinnati Royals 131-127 on a fourth-quarter binge sparked by Willie Naulls.

Big Five Football Stats Dominated By Sophomores

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Big Five individual football statistics are turning into a three-way sophomore scramble.

UCLA sophomore tailback Mike Haffner is the conference's leading rusher with 378 wards in 66 carries, a 5.7 average.

Beathard's yearling teammate, Hal Bedsole, is the leading receiver with 21 catches for 411 yards and five touchdowns, which also makes him second in scoring with 30 points.

Haffner is pushing USC quarterback Bill Nelsen for the total offense leadership. Nelsen has totaled 574 yards in 126 plays, Haffner 509 yards in 88 plays.

Nelsen is second in passing although his 543 yards passed is more than Beathard's 394. But the Trojan sophomore has a better completion average, .571 to Nelsen's .476 (30-63). Each has thrown for three touchdowns.

The individual scoring leader is UCLA's other tailback, Bobby Smith. He's scored 47 points on six touchdowns, six one-point conversions, one two-point conversion and one field goal.

Smith was done out of another category leadership when the conference based its punting statistics on six kicks or more. Smith had led for four weeks with one 50-yard kick. Now his UCLA teammate, Keith Jensen, has moved officially into the top spot with a 38.5 average off 31 kicks. Southern Cal's Ernie Jones is second with 21-36.7.

Smith, however, remains in the rushing race, trailing only Haffner. Bobby has gained 361 yards in 95 carries, a 3.8 average. George Honore of Stanford is second in pass catching with 20, good for 206 yards but no touchdowns.

Marin Pirates Pay Tribute To Top Performers Of Past Swim Season

Four Marin Pirates swimmers were honored Sunday night by 108 members of the club and parents who gathered for the organization's second annual awards banquet at Sabella's restaurant.

Ken Frost, 16-year-old breaststroke whiz from Belvedere, was named the squad's outstanding boy athlete for the second year in a row, and received one of the Pirate's two traveling trophies for the year. The corresponding award, for top girl on the team, went to Lynn Keeler, 15, of Kentfield, also for the second year running.

A special award for the team member whose swimming improved most during the past season went to Kirsten Beeler, 15, Greenbrae.

Don Keller, 15-year-old Ross freestyler, and Miss Keeler were elected co-captains for the 1961-62 season, replacing Frost who retires as captain.

The awards for Miss Keeler and Frost were based on a point scoring system which recognized numerous wins and outstanding performances in AAU meets during the year plus ratings for attendance, improvements and sportsmanship. Other top contenders for the two awards included George and Bob Girvin, San Anselmo; Roberta Shistar, Ross, and Candy Beeler, Greenbrae.

A special "graduating" swimmer award was made to Jim Dawson, Sleepy Hollow boy now at San Jose State, who put in three seasons on the Pirate team. Coach Beth Kaufman made her traditional "award" of bubble gum to three top sprinters, George Girvin, Bill Anderson and Keller, all of whom "broke a minute" in the 100-yard freestyle during the past season.

New officers of the parents' group which supports the team were elected: Ken Frost Sr., Belvedere, president; Bob Keeler, Kentfield, retiring president, now vice president; Mrs. George Shistar, Ross, secretary; Mrs. Alice Politi, Sleepy Hollow, treasurer; Bob Friend, Terra Linda, committeeman. The five comprise the board of directors which governs the club.

A Hawaiian theme prevailed at the banquet, arrangements for which were made by Mrs. Florence Hartwick and Mrs. Evelyn Friend.

Blood Ailment

STANFORD (AP) — Tests at Stanford confirmed yesterday that sophomore quarterback Steve Thurlow has mononucleosis, a blood ailment. Coach Jack Curtice said the standout signal caller will be held in the hospital and will probably not play until the Indians meet California in the Big Game Nov. 25.

Rod Sears and Chuck Butler will share the quarterback duties in the meantime. Oregon invades Stanford Saturday.

Planning Pie? Put Currants In For Flavor

With raisin pumpkin pie for sit down guests, your fall entertaining is sure to please. This glamour pie has a subtle spiced fruit flavor and a delicate whipped cream topping.

RAISIN PUMPKIN PIE

3 eggs, slightly beaten
1½ cups dark or golden raisins, chopped
1 cup canned pumpkin
1 cup whipping cream
1 cup sugar
½ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. cinnamon
¼ tsp. cloves
¼ tsp. ginger
¼ tsp. mace
¼ tsp. nutmeg
3 tblsp. brandy, optional
Pastry for 1 (9-inch) crust

Blend together all filling ingredients. Pour into unbaked 9-inch pastry shell. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 35 minutes. When cool frost with topping. Makes 1 (9-inch pie)

TOPPING: Whip 1 cup whipping cream until stiff. Fold in 1 tablespoon each sugar and finely chopped candied ginger and ¼ teaspoon vanilla.

Tender Biscuits Gain Nut Filling

There are many ways you can vary those old fashioned baking powder biscuits. Topsy-turvy orange nut biscuits are rolled like a jelly roll with a cinnamon, sugar and nut filling.

They're baked in muffin tins on top of a sweet orange rind mixture. When taken from the pans, you'll turn the biscuits over to find an orange topping.

2 cups sifted enriched flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon baking powder
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¾ cup sugar
¼ cup butter or margarine
½ cup orange juice
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
¼ cup lard
¾ cup milk
½ cup chopped nuts

Sift together flour, salt and baking powder. Mix cinnamon and ¼ cup sugar. Combine butter or margarine, orange juice, remaining ½ cup sugar and orange rind and cook 2 minutes. Pour syrup into 12 medium muffin pans. Cut lard into flour mixture. Add milk and stir until dough follows fork around bowl. Knead ½ minute. Roll dough into a 12x12-inch square. Sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar and nuts. Roll as for jelly roll. Slice 1 inch thick and place, cut side down, over orange mixture in each muffin pan. Bake in a very hot oven (450 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

Beef Curry On Rice

What To Do With The Pumpkin When Jack O Lantern Is 'Tired'

When a friend told us how she made her family's Allhallow's Eve pumpkin into puree and froze it, we followed suit. A comfort-giving task! It's pleasant to have the makings of a number of pumpkin dishes at hand in the freezer—and economical, to boot.

Our friend, whose three children are "of pumpkin age"—as she says — has a family ritual. Late in the afternoon on Halloween, she and the children cut a lid in the pumpkin (leaving on the stubby stem for a handle), remove the seeds and stringy portion, and carve out the traditional "face." Then a candle goes into the pumpkin and the jack-o'-lantern is used for that evening's celebration.

Next day when the children come home from school, their mother cuts away the bottom part of the pumpkin onto which the candle has dripped. The children help to get the pumpkin puree ready for the freezer. If your jack-o'-lantern turns out to be too tired to use for food, you may wish to start with a brand-new pumpkin. Either way these directions work well.

FREEZER PUMPKIN

Cut a pumpkin in half; cut each half into wedges and then into chunks. Remove seeds and stringy portion with a knife or by scraping it away with a spoon. Cut off the rind.

Measure enough water into a large kettle to have a 1-inch depth; add ½ teaspoon salt for each cup of water. Add the pumpkin and bring to a boil. Cover and boil 25 to 30 minutes or until the pumpkin is soft. Drain thoroughly. Mash and strain cooked pumpkin by putting it through a food mill. if the pumpkin puree seems to be more watery than the canned pumpkin you are accustomed to using in your recipes, allow ample time for the water to drain from it. For this draining, you can turn the puree back into the food mil (with the blade still attached and stir it occasionally, or you can use a colander with smal holes, or a strainer placed over a bowl.

Chill the strained pumpkin by setting it (in a bowl) over cold water. Fill the freezer containers (plastic, glass or treated cardboard) with pumpkin puree, leaving at least 1 inch air space at the top of each container for expansion. When freezing pumpkin for use in pumpkin pie, fill each container with the amount of pumpkin called for in your favorite pumpkin pie recipe. If you ordinarily make two pies at a time, freeze enough puree for two pies in one container. Label and freeze. To use, thaw several hours at room temperature.

Pork Chop-Apple Casserole Is Served With Zippy Salad

Pork chops and apple casserole and crown roast of pork with molasses-apple stuffing are subtly flavored with the tart-sweet tang of molasses for a new treat.

PORK CHOP CASSEROLE

Salt
1 tblsp. shortening
4 cups sliced cooking apples.
¼ cup seedless raisins
1 tspn. grated lemon rind
¼ cup molasses
¼ cup water

Preheat oven to 350-degrees. Sprinkle pork chops with salt; saute in shortening until brown. Mix together apples, raisins and lemon rind; place in 2-quart greased baking dish. Combine molasses and water; pour over apple mixture. Top with browned pork chops. Cover; bake for 1 hour. Remove cover and bake ½ hour more. Yield: 4 servings.

ZIPPY SALAD

1 package lemon gelatin
1½ cups boiling water
½ cup vinegar
3 tblsps. prepared horseradish
⅛ tspn. salt
1 cup chopped cabbage.

Dissolve gelatin in water. Chill. When almost firm, add remaining ingredients and stir. Chill in individual molds.

CROWN ROAST OF PORK

¼ cup chopped onions
2 cups sliced tart cooking apples
¼ cup diced celery
2 tblsps. butter
¼ cup molasses
¼ cup hot water
1 tblespn. lemon juice
1 tspn. grated lemon rind
1 tspn. salt
½ tspn. crumbled leaf sage
1 quart toasted bread cubes
7 lb. crown roast of pork

Saute onions, apples and celery in butter for 5 minutes. Mix molasses, water, lemon juice, rind and seasoning. In large bowl, combine bread cubes and sauteed ingredients; toss together lightly. Fill roast with stuffing, heaping it up in the center (do not pack tightly.) Bake, uncovered, in shallow baking pan in moderate oven (350-degrees F.) for 3½ hours (or until meat thermometer registers 185-degrees F.).

Instant Hot Cereal Gives Youngsters A Good Start Early

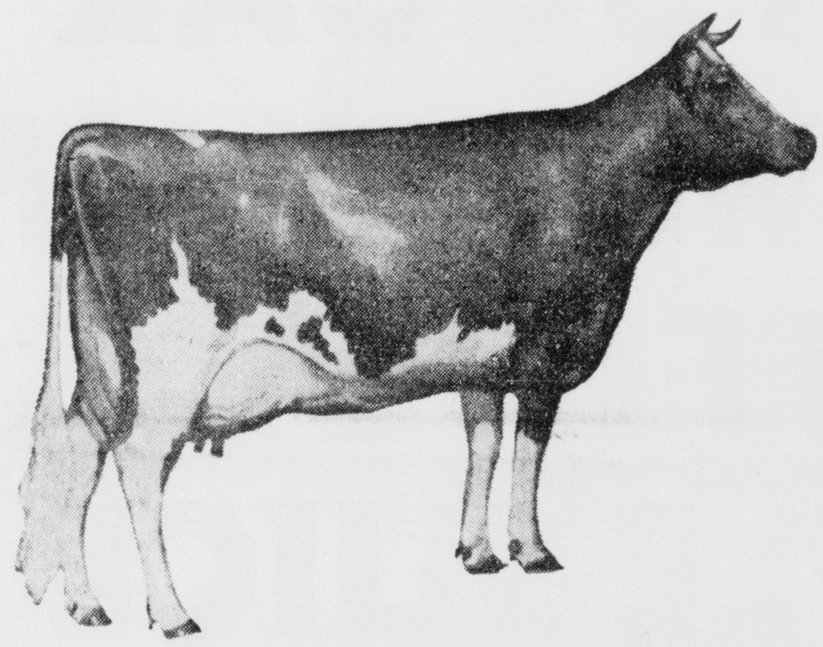

Eating a good breakfast is the best way to step up efficiency and battle morning fatigue. Workers starting the day with a good breakfast have fewer accidents than those who don't, tests show.

Likewise, a good morning meal helps make children more alert and do better in studies, sports and other school activities. It's generally recognized that breakfast should supply a quarter or more of the food values needed for the day.

On the breakfast menu hot whole grain cereals are important. An instant cooking whole wheat cereal is among the handiest. Stir the high-protein whole wheat flakes into boiling salted water and turn off the heat and it's ready to eat.

FOR A CHANGE in menu you might try a pork chop casserole, attractively arranged with apple slices in the center, and serve with it zippy molded salad and corn bread sticks.

DURING FASHION PARADE

High Twelvettes of Marin gathered yesterday in Larkspur for luncheon and showing of fashions, followed by a silent auction as their annual fund raising activity. Here Mrs. Gunvor Beander shows design by Marin's Gina of Sweden as she travels the show path. Other models included Mesdames Charles E. Hanger, F. N. Scatena and Lee Van Der Ploeg. Heritage Film Is Shown, Explained By Superintendent

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Dr. Virgil Hollis, Marin County Superintendent of Schools, showed the film "Our American Heritage" and spoke on "How Can We Make Good Schools Better" at the luncheon meeting Wednesday of Mill Valley's Awareness Group.

Some 50 leading women of the community who meet periodically for consideration of local and world affairs attended this first meeting held under new arrangements at "The Gallery."

According to Mrs. Edmond Gross, founder of the group, Dr. Hollis was requested to show the film. "As far as I am concerned," said Dr. Hollis, "This is a film that should be shown at collegiate level because there is an element of propaganda in it."

SUBJECTS ATTACKED

Consisting of colored slides depicting outstanding American events, personalities, accomplishments and scenes, the film was accompanied by narration based on the premise that Americans are gradually surrendering their freedoms to big government. Among subjects attacked were the passage of the income tax law without limit and Supreme Court decisions permitting invasion of the privacy of the home and trial of U.S. servicemen in courts of foreign lands.

Dr. Hollis said that he would have no objection to making the film available to groups with the understanding that it has not been approved by the Marin School Board and that neither he nor the board is pushing its use.

Reading from a speech delivered at one of his appearances in Southern California, the county superintendent went on to discuss his standards for good schools from his positions as educator, taxpayer and parent.

Among the points he emphasized were (1) That the four R's should be stressed and less time given to "frills, frosting and fol de rols." (2) That children should not be too sheltered from frustrations and should be taught the need for conformity to basic disciplines. (3) That poor teachers should be ruthlessly eliminated and (4) That there should be legislation against allowing a teacher to teach first grade in her first year.

RECOMMENDS

He recommended as needed programs those concerning (1) Experiments in science, methodology and languages (2) Gifted children (3) Testing (4) Courses of study that give basic requirements at each grade level understood by children, parents, teachers and community (5) Knowledge about the American heritage and systems that threaten it (6) Strengthening the teaching of the American heritage, the Constitution and responsibilities of citizens (7) Clear understanding of government and (8) Factual reporting of students' progress.

In the question and answer period that followed Dr. Hollis' speech, drawing lively pro and con discussion were questions regarding his statements on the need for conformity, texts used in teaching reading, how to eliminate poor teachers and high administrators and the definition of "frills" in the curriculum.

CLAIRE FRANCES BYERS

Betrothal Of Claire Byers To Richard Paysse Told

The engagement of Claire Frances Byers to Richard Carl Paysse of San Rafael has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert F. Byers of Novato.

Claire is the sister of Linda, Mark and Bruce Byers of Novato. She attended San Rafael High School and the College of Marin. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Funke of Sacramento.

Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Paysse of San Rafael and the grandson of Mrs. Charles Barbera of Petaluma. He also attended San Rafael High School and the College of Marin.

Wedding plans are indefinite.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Mrs. Dan Sweeney Jr. To See Birthplace At Film Festival

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

When Mrs. Dan Sweeney Jr. of Greenbrae attends the International Film Festival, which begins tonight, she will see her birthplace for the second time within two years. On Nov. 7 'Violence On The Square,' Yugoslavia's contribution to the festival will be shown.

Zora Sweeney spells it Jugo-slavia, the Serbian way. She was born there but her parents brought her to the United States when she was four months old. However her parents were smarter than many of the foreign born and taught her their native language. She speaks it as well as English.

When Zora and Dan traveled 12 months in Europe last year they went to Yugoslavia and Zora's birthplace, Novi Sad, a lovely city on the Danube River and spent more than two weeks there. They were surprised to find a movie company filming "Violence on the Square" and were on the set as the story of the occupation of the city by the Nazis during World War II was enacted. They became close friends of Broderick Crawford, who stars in the film. They also met many members of the company and because of Zora's ability to speak the Serbian language she and her husband were welcomed into homes in Novi Sad.

Dan and Zora will attend the black tie opening of the film festival with Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Childhouse, also of Greenbrae. The Czech film, The White Dove, by invitation only, will be at Metro Theater, where the showing of entries continues to Nov. 14. Prior to the premiere the two Greenbrae couples will attend the cocktail buffet party at the Sheraton-Palace in honor of the festival jury. Host will be Festival Director Irving Levin and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Watson. Their party will go by motor cavalcade to the Metro and after the show, will go on to the champagne reception and ball at the Palace of the Legion of Honor. Hosts will be Mr. Levin, Mayor George Christopher and members of the San Francisco Art Commission, which sponsors the festival.

MR. AND MRS. FRED A. BAKER JR. of Mill Valley have returned with enthusiastic reports of their cruise down the St. Lawrence seaway and motor trip through New England.

The Bakers flew to New York on Sept. 21 and went on to Quebec and Montreal, where they boarded a Dutch freighter for the 11-day cruise down the St. Lawrence seaway through the Great Lakes to Chicago.

"We were greatly impressed with the engineering feat accomplished in the seaway, for which whole villages had to be moved," Mrs. Baker said. "We are recommending the trip to our friends because it is a delightful, leisurely cruise as well as an unusual experience."

The Bakers went to New York and they were eight days driving through New England to see the fall colors.

"We were in Japan last year," Mrs. Baker commented, "and as far as the fall colors are concerned, we both agreed that in New England they are superior to those in Japan."

THE MOONMEN were among the mystery guests at the Halloween party given by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Banks of Hill Haven Saturday night. Everyone came in costume and masks were not removed until the persons were identified. Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Jampolsky, the moonmen, won first prize. Mrs. John Mayor came with her doctor-husband. She was a ghost with built-in X-ray which showed up beautifully as she turned on the flashlight behind it. Two corpses lying on the floor were revealed as Mrs. William Johnstone and Charles Pruett, who came to the party with their spouses. The Harold Olsons managed to keep their identity secret until the very last. They were the Spaniards. Adding to the confusion, Lee Brant, brother-in-law of Mrs. Jampolsky, wandered in and out.

Giving great zest to the party Dick De Berry played his guitar. And a grand finale to the party was limbo, an "import" of the West Indies. If you haven't tried it, you've missed a lot. It's guaranteed to give anyone a sore back.

Among the other guests at the party were Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Wynn, Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Taich, Messrs. and Mesdames Wellman Topham, Oliver Smith, Milton Poppett, Rolf Beere, Donald Raggio, Harold Freeman, Francis Ryan, Fred Dupuis and Mrs. DeBerry.

Media And Youth To Be Topic Of Panel On Nov. 8

The effect of mass media on the youth of this nation will be discussed when the Sleepy Hollow and Hidden Valley Parents' Club presents a panel Nov. 9 at 8 p.m., at the Sleepy Hollow School.

The four guest speakers on the panel will be inspector Harvey Teague, head of the newly created Juvenile Division of the Sheriff's Office of Marin County; Paul Dowdall, chief intake officer for the Marin County Probation Department, Juvenile Division; David Fogel, head supervisor for Marin Juvenile Hall; and Dr. Robert Burke, child psychiatrist. Leonard Miller will be moderator.

Dramatized Records

The newest records for children contain dramatized biblical stories. The stories are not reading from the Bible, but are acted out versions of many great stories, giving the listener a feeling of participation. The albums, 16 stories on eight long-play records, are designed to stimulate a child's interest.

Strawberry Book Fair Opens Friday

The Strawberry Point Parent-Teachers Assn. will open the doors to its annual Book Fair Friday at 3 p.m. The fair will continue until 8 p.m. and be open on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Co-chairmen for this annual event which is held at the Strawberry Point School are Mesdames William Clark and Edwin Nilan.

The 300 books chosen for display include publication for every age. Orders will be taken for these books or any others in publication. They will be available at their retail prices.

Prior to the opening of the fair to public, the children of the school will be encouraged to examine the books for their age groups in the hope such an examination will stimulate an interest in reading.

Proceeds will be used to purchase books for the school library. During the fair hours coffee will be served.

Chinese Women Winning A Bit Of New Freedom

TOKYO (UPI) — The wives of Red Chinese leaders are beginning to get an "equal" treatment from their husbands.

Reports filtering throug the bamboo curtain indicate the Red chieftains are now inclined to use to their good advantage one aspect of western "culture"—allowing their wives to appear before the public.

The majority of Red China's 650 million have not been aware of activities of the wives of their leaders. The wives have been wrapped in a shroud of mystery.

The Communist press has hardy reported their activities and hardly any pictures of them have been printed in Communist newspapers.

EASY WEARING ON CAMPUS

For after class time the student will take to this long-line sweater of textured red woolknit by Renart. A contrasting black border accentuates the low hipline and gives an illusory added width to the boat neck. A natural partner for slacks or skirts, the sweater comes in combinations of blue and black, gold and black and white and black also.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

By RICHMOND BARBOUR, Ph. D

'Jailhouse Rock' For Daughter Nearly Causes A Wreck For Dad

I nearly had a wreck. I was driving home after work, with my car radio blaring. I heard the disc jockey say, "Now we will play Jailhouse Rock for young Miss Barbour, the daughter of the well-known guidance counselor and columnist, Richmond Barbour. We hope the Barbours enjoy this!" I almost rammed the car ahead. My blood pressure soared!

Can you stand Elvis Presley? Or Bobby Darin, or Fabian or any of the other popular young murderers of music? I can't. I'd rather listen to the squeak of chalk on a blackboard. Really I would. Or the howl of a feedback through a loudspeaker, or the yowling of cats in the alley. That music!

However, I'm cursed with a good memory. I drove along remembering how my dad felt about the jazz I enjoyed. He hated it, but he would sit in tolerant silence when I played the disks I enjoyed. Poor old dad!

I reminded myself of the endless musical war between the generations. Teen-agers and parents have never agreed on music. They never will. I recalled that out of jazz came some great music. Will something great come from rock 'n roll? It could, I suppose.

I got home safely. My wrath had subsided. I realized that my daughter has a right to send a letter to a disc jockey, if she wants to.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "I think the dances our present teen-agers do are immoral. Why do we let them continue?"

(A) I'd say the dances are good or bad depending on the dancers. I was amused to hear a teen-age girl say the fox trot was immoral. She said it brought the dancers closer together than rock 'n roll.

FAMILY FARE

Overdressing Baby Makes Him Feel Fettered, Fussy

Baby, during his first year of life, has two requirements of clothing, cleanliness and warmth. Baby doesn't like to be overdressed, it makes him fussy. He doesn't like clothing put over his head, preferring wrap-around garments. Thus, baby's needs can best be met by clothes that allow for growth, are easy to put on and take off, are washable and are durable.

Complete freedom of motion is essential for normal foot development in infancy. Because of its softness, baby's foot may be readily deformed by pressure. Various foot coverings, even sleeping garments with feet in them, often place too much pressure on baby's foot. In warm weather, no foot covering is necessary. Otherwise try a pair of light socks.

The most common problem faced by the new mother is how to keep baby neat and comfortable, and in a diaper that does not fall off.

To be effective, and to do its job properly, a diaper should fit snugly on baby. A snug fit does not mean a tight fit. A diaper that is too tight, or too bulky, will make baby uncomfortable.

The baby that must be hospitalized will be a better patient if he has a familiar and beloved object in his crib. A favorite toy or doll or blanket seems to be a tie to home, a consolation in loneliness and a token of the child's identity.

Fancy Pants Are Given The 'OK'

CHICAGO (UPI)—Fancy pants—in velvet, brocade and embroidered silk—are proper attire for almost any social affair except weddings and funerals.

This is the word from 'Cile Turner, a designer for Turner Togs. She believes actress Rosalind Russell gave the party britches movement real impetus when she once appeared at an Academy Awards telecast in evening trousers instead of evening gown.

"Daring women everywhere now wear pants to black tie affairs if they're willing to risk a few raised eyebrows," Mrs. Turner said.

She advised the hostess planning to wear britches to let her feminine guests know.

Back To The Cave, Designers Decree

CHICAGO (UPI) — Interior designers have come up with a new kind of room called "the cave."

Numerous versions of it were shown at the American Institute of Designers' decoration and design exhibition.

In striking contrast with the bright and bustling family room, the "cave" or grotto" has dark-toned walls and a keyed-down, enclosed mood. It is designed to create an atmosphere of tranquility and repose, a retreat for the weary.

The TV set is best left out of "the cave," designers advise. This is the room for the hi-fi or stereo set and books. Recommended furniture includes chaise lounge, sofa, ottoman, lounge chair.

Recognizing that few families can spare a room as a full-time retreat or "cave," several designers have come up with dual-purpose "caves."

One that doubles as a guest room has a tailored bed with foam rubber mattress covered in upholstery fabric for daytime lounging.

Another convertible bedroom "cave" has reversible cloth-covered wall panels with dark green brocade fabric on one side for the "cave," striped beige fabric on the other side for the bedroom.

These effects created by professional designers can be simulated in the average home, the experts advise, by following a few pointers:

—Use relaxing furniture. If you have no chaise lounge, set an ottoman beside a favorite lounge chair. If you have no sofa, use a foam rubber slab on a built-in base of plywood or a set of flush doors, available unfinished at many lumber yards and unfinished furniture stores.

—Pick a restful color scheme, preferably dark. Take your time selecting colors that give you a sense of warmth and well-being. Everyone reacts emotionally to different colors.

—Choose a few favorite objects you like to look at — a painting, a set of prints, a hand-loomed rug, a sculpture or possibly a family portrait.

Tamalpais Temple Sets Smorgasbord Luncheon

Pythian Sisters, Tamalpais Temple 129, will hold a benefit luncheon in the banquet hall of IOOF Temple in San Rafael, Tuesday. Smorgasbord luncheon will be from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. There will also be a bazaar table.

Know Your RHODODENDRONS

Species rhododendron are rapidly coming to the front for their uniqueness of shape, foliage and colors. While some actually grow to become trees, many do not grow over 6 inches tall with a spread of 12 inches or more within a ten year period, ideal for training as bonzai, in containers or the rock garden. Most are native of Burma, China and Tibet and have the distinctive break of the formal type varieties with an Oriental touch. One variety opens a chartreuse green, changing to clear yellow with orange tipped stamens, another has blooms of satiny white with black tipped stamens, one of the finest yellow species has excellent foliage, growth habit and flowers, to about 3 feet tall. Distinctive evergreen leaf colors of blue-green, dark glossy green and gray-green, some with aromatic fragrance with blooms of nodding bells, trumpets and racemes give the species top priority as ornamental shrublets. We have on display, about 35 varieties, with more to come, of the very best. Our selection of rhododendrons, both old and new is one of the finest on the Pacific Coast.

Food Scientists Begin To Analyze Flavor Chemically

First of five articles on the foods of the future, from the research laboratory to the dinner table.

By BARBARA HOSMER

Every fall the food researchers and industry men make a concerted effort to let us in on what they're planning to put on our dinner table in the years ahead as a feature of the annual food editors conference. So, want to know what the food folks are up to?

Development in analyzing the flavor of food is probably the most exciting frontier in food science, says Dr. B. S. Schweigert, one of the principal speakers. Dr. Schweigert is head of the department of food science at Michigan State University.

This process of identifying chemically the flavor constituents of food has been compared to the era when scientists were discovering new vitamins.

"Certainly the new developments in flavor chemistry could have great impact, for if we could really control uniformly and consistently the flavor of our foods, it would be a tremendous bulwark to good nutrition," Dr. Schweigert said.

GETTING CLOSER

He explained that food scientists are now approaching this goal with many foods but that they are doing it empirically yet in spite of rapid progress. He says that the scientists are getting closer, though there is much, much more to learn — developments so far are just indicating what the possibilities may be.

"Now we can take food flavors from meats or other foods and by new specialized techniques we can characterize up to, for example, 20 chemical substances associated with the flavor of a food product. Surprisingly, a number of these compounds are rather simple chemically, but we have not yet been able to duplicate the subtle flavors of our foods," he said.

Dr. Schweigert said that it is now possible to take dehydrated veal, which is rather bland, and incorporate purified concentrates taken from aged beef into the veal on rehydration and get "a rather good aged beef flavor."

The flavor constituents are found to be derived from many sources — some from proteins, some from fats, others from carbohydrates and some from nucleic acids. To isolate and identify these substances that make up flavor will be the objective of much research in laboratories of the universities and food industry.

Dr. Schweigert explained the purpose. "The real objective . . . is (to develop) uniqueness and uniformity of flavor of each product. This is looked upon as good and bad by some people, since if we duplicate all the flavors everything would be the same and eating wouldn't be nearly as exciting. But if we look on it another way — if we have uniformity of flavor for a certain product, we can still have lots of different flavor foods. We don't have to have just one flavor to a food, but we can control what's there and describe it, and a food company can then repeat it."

ALWAYS GOOD

This assures the housewife more than ever of getting a uniformly good can of tomatoes each time she spends precious food pennies for one.

Dr. Schweigert sees the ability to control flavor to some extent as a means to more kinds of specialized food products — greater number of convenience foods with unique flavors. But the doctor assures us that the food industry will not be making sow's ears taste like silk purses or ham hocks into barbecued sirloin.

"All the food industry is really trying to do is to be sure that all of the quality originally present in a food is there when the consumer gets it. A manufacturer can't put in more than was there of the ingredients he is working with. This can be destroyed or maintained in the home . . . but the dangers of flavor being destroyed by the food processor is being minimized. If the flavor is lost by food companies it cannot be created in the end product.

"This is where real progress has been made and we'll see a great deal more of it," he said.

Bonnie Hubbard's KUPBOARD

FUN WITH FOOD AND HELPFUL HINTS

Toddlers and cookies have a natural affinity for each other. GERBER Animal-Shaped Cookies were made just for little ones; these cute little cookies shaped like bunnies, chicks and other animals, have a crisp, sweet taste on a young tongue. Light as they are, they contain twice as much protein as most other cookies; even the icing contains B-vitamins; a truly wholesome treat.

Dips make conversation, and that's what makes the party go! Here is one, sure to start talk: Mash 1 peeled avocado; stir into it 1 tablespoon minced onion, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon Tabasco sauce, ½ cup LINDSAY Ripe Olives, chopped. Garnish with pitted LINDSAYS; serve with chilled, cooked shrimp.

November brings the scent of burning leaves, the cool, gray skies that make an open fire and a tray-meal inviting. A chafing dish of curried WHITE STAR Tuna with molded salads fits the picture. Stir 1 can WHITE STAR, chunk-style, into 2 cups white sauce seasoned with 2 teaspoons curry powder. Add 4 hard-cooked eggs, sliced, heat, serve over hot rice or toast.

Succotash is one of the true American foods. But our forefathers never had any like the C and W brand; tender lima beans and crisp corn mingle deliciously in C and W Frozen Succotash. Try it Creole style: cook, drain, then add 1 can tomatoes with chopped onions, celery and green peppers, a touch of basil and sugar, file powder if desired—it's a zesty, luxurious dish.

The perfect holiday gift is Bonnie Hubbard's pretty pink and white apron. It's less than half retail cost with label from any Bonnie Hubbard product or facsimile or masthead this column. Send, with $1.25, to Bonnie Hubbard Hostess Apron, Box 62, Los Angeles 51.

Have a Cheesy-Bean Broil after the football game and you'll be serving food folks enjoy. HEINZ Boston type Baked Beans are excellent this way because of their rich, yet delicate flavor . . . simply pile them on buttered bun-halves and cover, lattice-style, with strips of American cheese. Pop into a 400° oven and bake until the cheese broils and the beans are hot.

A lunchbox meal can be a dreary thing to a hungry man or child—or it can be bright and tempting, with a neat array of sandwiches and other foods packed so flavors cannot mingle. CUT-RITE Sandwich Bags are large enough for big sandwiches, with a fold-over to assure sealing. And they are strong (waxed right through) yet so clear that contents are visible.

Hard-working fellow, that pet of yours! All day long he has to chase dry leaves and other dogs, romp with the kids, bark at postmen, watch for your homecoming—no wonder he is so hungry at dinnertime. A big bowl of HOLSUM Dog Food is the answer; good, fresh meat mixed with vegetables and cereal, added vitamins and other nutrients, HOLSUM is ready to serve.

One product which performs many tasks is a real gem, as any busy woman will tell you—it requires less shopping time, saves space and precious minutes. PUREX Liquid Bleach does all this and more; it removes stains from fabrics, brightens and deodorizes household surfaces, speeds dozens of chores. Look for new, gallon-size PUREX in the light-weight plastic bottle.

That's all for now! See you next week!

World Community Day Is Set By United Church Women

World Community Day will be observed Friday by the United Church Women of Marin, a department of the National Council of Churches of Christ, with a program and luncheon in the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo.

The interdenominational service will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Earl Menker, former field worker for National Council and a world traveler recently returned from South America, will speak on the theme "Freedom to Know."

Church women are making school outfits for boys and girls under eight years of age and supplying each outfit with a school bag containing pencil, paper, eraser, blunt scissors and crayons.

Special music will be given by the women's choir of the Church of Our Saviour, Mill Valley, directed by Mrs. Otto Weissich. A report from the protestant chaplain at Juvenile Hall, Ed Mumrow, will be given on the needs of the youths there. A short, business session including the election of officers will follow the luncheon.

Carol Porter To Be Bride In February

The engagement of Carol Leanna Porter to Phillip Charles Partin was announced at a buffet supper Saturday evening by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. LeMoyne Porter of Mill Valley.

Carol was graduated from Tamalpais High School and Colorado Woman's College in Denver. She also attended Shaeffer School of Design in San Francisco.

Her fiance attended Inglewood High School and the University of Southern California. He served two years in the Navy. Presently he is employed with Dumont Manufacturing Corp. in San Rafael. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Partin of Inglewood.

Tea, Musicale Given Monday

Mrs. Ernest L. Kirschner was hostess at a tea and musical program at her home in Kent Woodlands Monday afternoon attended by some 50 members of the Women's Museum Club of San Francisco and a number of her friends in Marin County.

The event was the monthly program of this group of women end professional performing artists of which Mrs. Kirschner is a member.

Performances were by violinist Sabina Skolar, accompanied by Violet Fenster Blagg at the piano; pianist Aileen Feeley; and lyrice soprano Leona Gordon, who was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Kirschner.

Pouring at the tea which followed the program were Aileeen Feeley and Jessie Perrin of San Francisco, Mrs. John M. Wolfe of Kent Woodlands and Mrs. John A. Lesoine of Ross.

Refrigerator Tray

If you need a tray to hold small bottles in your refrigerator, cut an empty milk carton in half lengthwise. Small bottles placed in it will not tip over.

Clean Fan

To clean an electric fan, first disconnect it. With a cloth wrung from warm soapy water, wipe the blades and motor casing. Wrap the fan in brown paper to keep dust off while it is stored.

Admits Air

After opening a bottle of ketchup, push a straw through to the bottom. Remove the straw and you will find that the air that was admitted will make the ketchup flow more easily.

KTIM Sounding Board Exploring Shelters

Opinions on fallout shelters will be voiced on the air by KTIM listeners following tomorrow's Marin Sounding Board program, news editor Karl Barron announced today.

Following a policy which proved popular during the Civic Center controversy, several periods have been set aside during which listeners may phone and have their views aired, Barron said.

"Bomb Shelters — Whose Responsibility? The State's, the County's or the Individual's?" will be the topic on the sounding board from 9 to 10 a.m. tomorrow and rebroadcast at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Guests of moderator Kitty Oppenheimer will be Philip Drath, chairman of the Marin County Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy, and Dr. William H. Pemberton, Mill Valley psychologist, speaking against the shelters, and William Ward, regional administrator, and Hugh Sheehan, assistant civil defense co-ordinator, both of the regional office of the California Disaster Office, and Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, county assistant CD coordinator, speaking for them.

Questions from listeners will be presented to the panel, Mrs. Oppenheimer said.

Following the broadcast the programs from 10:15 a.m. and 3:15 p.m. will be open for phone calls, Barron said. Opinions will be limited to three minutes in order to get as large a sampling as possible.

Youth Pleads Guilty To Shooting Friend

Charles Miller, 21, has pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court to shooting Tommy Hill, 21, in the arm and leg at a party at 209 Drake Avenue, Marin City, where they both lived.

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr., set Nov. 30 for probation report and sentence. Miller said he shot Hill after he was punched in the face by Hill's brother, John Freeman Hill, of the same address.

Lecture Series Starts At College On Tuesday

Dr. Seymour Martin Lipset, professor of sociology at University of California, will launch College of Marin's 1961-62 concert and lecture series with a talk entitled "America's Image Abroad" at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Olney Hall on the Kentfield campus.

Lipset is one of three guest speakers scheduled to appear in the series which will run throughout the school year. The other two are Aldous Huxley, novelist, who will appear on campus Dec. 7, and Milton Mayer, author and journalist, who is scheduled for Jan. 4.

Lipset is author of seven books and more than 50 magazine articles on sociology and political science. His most recent book is "Political Man," published in 1960.

He was a Ford research professor of political science at Yale University during the 1960-61 school year, and visiting professor at University of Warsaw, Poland, last summer.

Makes Honor Roll

Francis J. Healy of San Rafael has qualified for second honors on the 1961 spring semester honor roll at St. Mary's College, according to Brother U. Cassian, F.S.C., dean. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Healy of 5 Bret Street, San Rafael.

Frankfurter and Rice Bake

5-oz. pkg. pre-cooked rice (1¼ cups)
1 can tomato soup
¾ cup PET Evaporated Milk
8 frankfurters

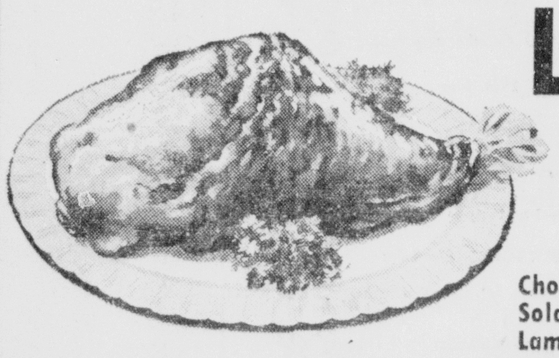

In well-greased 10 x 6-in. baking dish mix all ingredients except frankfurters. Cut 4 frankfurters into ½-in. slices and stir into rice mixture. Split rest of frankfurters lengthwise and arrange on top. Bake near center of 350 oven (moderate) for 40 min., or until rice is tender. Makes 4 generous servings.

NO STOP ON THE JUNKIE TRAIL

William Cochrane as Johnny Pope, for whom life proves "just a hatful of rain," listens dully to shakedown artist Chuch in scene from "Hatful of Rain" as produced by Gate Five Productions at the Gate Playhouse in Sausalito. The story of a "junkie" and how he drags down his family will play its second weekend series Friday and Saturday with curtain at 8:30 p.m.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

(A Thrice-Weekly Column)

By HARRY CRAFT

New Boat Chartering Project Is Started By Dolphin Sales

Chartering of new boats by the day, week or fortnight is a project just started by Embree Hockenbeamer of Dolphin Marin Sales, Inc., 135 Third Street, San Rafael.

Dolphin, agent for Fairliner cruisers, has decided to put two and maybe more popular models of this marine line into rental service. At the moment a Jet Hawk 25 and Viscount 28 are being made available. Maximum capacity of the Jet Hawk is six persons — eight on the Viscount.

Charter rates run from $50 for one day on the Hawk ($60 on the Viscount), $90 and $108 for two days, $250 and $300 for a week and $400 and $480 for two weeks — completely checked and equipped with everything for cruising inside the Golden Gate.

"These boats sell for $8,000 and $10,000 and are new, so the prices are in line," says Hockenbeamer. "There are a number of owners who only use their boats three or four times a year."

As far as he has been able to determine, no one in the Bay Area this side of Stockton is engaged in this type of chartering.

Limitations exclude pets on board, use for water skiing or aquaplane, and boats must be used on inland waters by persons over 21 years of age. Operators are required to establish proof of maneuvering ability.

SO FAR, Wilshire Holiday Stations' bi-weekly Falcon giveaways haven't gone to Marin winners. (Drawings cover five counties in the Oakland-Santa Rosa area.) But gasoline prizes have been won by Oscar Herriman of Marin City, Mildred Phillips of San Rafael and M/Sgt. Raymond Sturgal of Hamilton Field.

Drawings will go on until the end of the year; Nov. 17 drawing will be held at one of Marin's seven Wilshire stations.

CHRISTMAS CHECKS ALREADY: Northwestern Savings and Loan Assn. of San Rafael and Mill Valley sent out checks today totaling $134,450 to holders of paid up Christmas club accounts, according to Mrs. Esther M. Dearth, secretary of the association. Another $30,000 will be mailed this month. The total represents an increase of one-third over last year's amount.

SOUTHERN MARIN district office of the Equitable Life Assurance Society has been moved from 15 East Blithedale Avenue, Mill Valley, to 101 Casa Buena Drive, Corte Madera. Milton Cerf is in charge. . . . Richard A. Secrist, general agent for John Hancock Mutual Life in San Rafael is back this week from Point Clear, Ala., where he attended a meet of all Hancock general agents in the U. S.

FALLOUT: A household kit for radiation measurement by Bendix, heretofore available by mail order from the factory, will soon be given national distribution through retail stores. Price: $24.95 . . . Gary Rifkind of the Fourth and C Pharmacy in San Rafael had an urgent phone inquiry on the possibility of securing Miltown tranquilizer without prescription to stock in her bomb shelter . . . H-m-m-m.

Fuchsia Society

Alaskan color slides will be exhibited at the next meeting of the Marin County branch of the American Fuchsia Society in Painters' Hall, 701 Mission Avenue, San Rafael, on Friday at 8 p.m.

VOLUNTEER TRAINER — Keith K. Paslee, national director of scouting service for the Boy Scouts of America, will visit the Marin Council Nov. 15 to train volunteer scouters. Commissioner staffs and training committees of the council's three districts will participate in the course.

Together on Carrier

Navy Lt. (jg) Clifford R. Den Otter, son of Mrs. Lilley J. Den Otter of 14 Willow Street, San Rafael, and Marshall E. Fenstermaker, seaman apprentice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Fenstermaker of 620 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia, are serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Ranger, now in Yokosuka, Japan, for a 14-day visit.

Work Starts On Bus Stop Kiosk

Work on Sausalito's bus shelter between Anchor and Bay streets on Bridgeway is under way.

The 12-sided kiosk, designed by Sausalito architect Charles E. Finney, will contain a ticket counter, waiting area for 10 persons, magazine and news stand and two benches.

It is being built by Poole Construction Co. of San Francisco for $5,320, which includes a trellis along the sidewalk. It is to be completed by Jan. 1.

Marine Training

Marine Pvt. Philip A. Beyman, son of Mrs. Josephine R. Beyman of 2 Los Cerros, Greenbrae, has completed four weeks individual combat training at the Second Infantry Training Regiment, Camp Pendleton.

New Upholstery Business Opens In San Anselmo

Richard S. Brown, a Marin County businessman for 12 years, has opened Brown's Upholstery at 130 Tunstead Avenue, San Anselmo.

He said today that he offers personal service in all types of recovery, custom work and remodeling. A large stock of samples will be built up gradually, he reported.

Brown has a background of 20 years in the upholstery business and allied activities. During his previous Marin residence, following six years in Lake County, he was associated with Lee Marriott, interior decorator.

He lives with his wife, in business herself as a psysiotherapist, at 304 Corte Madera Avenue, Corte Madera. They have three daughters, two married, and three grandchildren.

Are You Starving Your Husband Out Of A Promotion?

SIX MONTHS ago, a sales executive with an aggressive firm in the Northwest suddenly quit his job. The reason? He had been by-passed for a Vice-Presidency even though he knew he was qualified for the position. He never knew why he was by-passed. His employer might have termed it "Breakfast Starvation."

When breakfast is skipped or skimped, work output is less, mental reactions become slower and slower . . . and muscular fatigue increases. For a man determined to rise in his work, this morning let-down can be a serious handicap. The theory that the "coffee-break" adds the necessary morning stimulant is misleading. When breakfast is eaten, the coffee-break stimulant adds nothing to mental alacrity. It falls far short of the benefits gained from the basic breakfast. What is the basic breakfast, this meal that is perhaps your biggest contribution to your husband's success?

Because hearty breakfasts are no longer needed generally, nutrition authorities have formulated a basic breakfast pattern consisting of fruit, cereal, milk, bread and butter. This can be supplemented with other foods, such as eggs or meats but the basic breakfast provides the nutrition that modern workers, office as well as factory workers, need. The same is true for students. The experts also point out that omission of breakfast is no advantage in weight reduction. In fact, skipping breakfast is a detriment to successful healthful weight control.

These facts are important: when you eat an adequate breakfast, you can turn out more work during the morning hours, you are quicker in your reactions and do not tire as easily. Doesn't a basic breakfast, then, fit your family's needs? Hummingbirds Can Suffer Damage From Sugar Diet

Now, however, they find themselves in something of a quandry about what to feed their tiny boarders. Some sources claim the white sugar syrup which many people put in the feeders is killing the hummers.

This thesis has been given a pretty thorough pro and con treatment in Audubon Magazine. But it is still not settled. Some things are clear however. Some people are feeding too rich a mixture which damages the little birds' livers and kills them. Three cups of water to one cup of sugar is the recommended mixture.

White sugar syrup is certainly not a complete food. It is conceivable to us that some Hummers might become addicted to the stuff and not eat elsewhere, in which case they would die of improper nutrition. There are lots of very tiny insects in the flower nectars which comprise the natural diet of the hummers. The bugs provide protein.

Raw honey solution has been suggested as a more natural food, but it is prone to fermentation. Fermented honey is bad for them too.

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Re: Controversy Over Junior College Land Acquisition.

Enclosed, herewith, please find copy of statement made by me to the Grand Jury at its meeting on Oct. 24, 1961, in connection with this mat. ter.

The Independent - Journal periodically by editorial indicates a policy to be fair to all in reporting of the news and to insure that all sides of controversies are fully presented in its press while acknowledging that the press, like humans, may sometimes err.

The enclosed statement is submitted therefore to you with this in mind and with the request that you print it in full, without editing, and with headlines (as captioned), placement and coverage in the manner that your editions of October 13, 14, 16, 17 and 18, 1961, heretofore covered this issue. This will be fair to all and will allow our community to have full access to the facts in order that it may with knowledge and justice pass upon the accusations heretofore made against the trustees of the Marin Junior College District.

In making this request, I want you to know personally that I would in the future be pleased to sit down with you and appropriate members of your staff in an effort to reach a reasonable understanding and approach by all of us of the responsibilities, obligations and concerns of each of us to the community on problems of this nature.

I-J ACCUSED OF INACCURATE AND MISLEADING REPORTS ON COLLEGE LAND PURCHASES.

For many days now, the Independent-Journal has, in bold, front-page headlines, in effect, accused the five trustees of our Junior College of criminal action in the acquisition of land for expansion of the Kentfield Campus. Directly and indirectly, it has attempted by innuendo, inference, inaccurate reporting and misrepresentation of the true facts to convince the people of this county that their elected representatives on the Junior College Board have acquired land for the School District in secret, in violation of the Brown Act and of their duties as trustees, and as such are guilty of criminal activity. This newspaper is so obsessed with its application of the Brown Act and its own legal interpretation of the Act that it refuses to consider, weigh or fully report in its articles on this subject the rulings and opinions of respectable legal authorities of the state, all of which have been made available to it by the County Counsel's office. Instead, this newspaper, with the extensive power of the press that it exerts in our county, has by the reporting tactics which we have witnessed in the past week or so, as well as in the past, attempted to pressure, bludgeon and coerce elective governing bodies within this county to yield to its interpretation of the law rather than that of their legal advisors. This is the some newspaper that on May 13, 1961, under the guise of an editorial, in effect compared the actions of the trustees of the San Anselmo School District in a land acquisition matter to those of Adolph Eichmann in his attempted elimination of the Jewish people in Germany.

Although it is often said, and not without merit, that you can't fight the Independent-Journal in this county, and that it will bury you, conscience and justice will not permit me to let these latest attacks on fine and reputable people of our community go unchallenged.

The Junior College, after numerous meeting and discussions on the issue of how to meet and handle the present and anticipated growth and enrollment of students within the district, approved a master plan for the expansion of the Kentfield campus, which master plan shows and covers recent, pending and prospective land acquisitions, all of which is a matter of public record in the School District, including the physical plan itself, being a drawing some three by five feet or so in size.

The Independent - Journal reported (October 17, 1961) that the purchase of acreage from Mosk Realty Company had been completed by the College District in advance of action at its regular board, that the only reported action in the minutes of the Board meeting was a motion to accept the grant of interest in the property on September 14, 1961, and that the property was purchased in fact three days earlier on September 11th, and further reported in headlines of October 17, 1961 that you, the Grand Jury of our county, found out that the College purchased the property in private.

The facts, truth and record of this transaction are as follows:

(1) Item 12, minutes of Board meeting of February 9, 1961, show adoption of resolution declaring need for the property for school purposes, that the School District would acquire it and direct the County Counsel to institute and prosecute condemnation proceedings in connection therewith (Reporter Dorothy Simpers, I-J, present).

(2) Item 9, minutes of Board meeting of February 21, 1961, indicate that the Director reported that County Counsel was progressing with the negotiations and further that the Director had advised the Planning Commission, as required by statute, of the proposed acquisitions.

(3) February 28, 1961, suit was filed with the County Clerk, Court House, San Rafael, and is a matter of Superior Court record.

(4) February 28, 1961, notice of filing of the action was recorded with the County Recorder, Court House, San Rafael, Book 1439 at page 545, Official Records of the County of Marin.

(5) Item 14, minutes of Board meeting of March 16, 1961, indicate that the administration advised that the Planning Commission had no objection to the proposed acquisition (Reporter Williams, I-J, present).

(6) July 25, 1961, Mosk Realty Company filed answer to suit with County Clerk, Superior Court records, alleging value of $90,000 and also filed memorandum to set matter for trial.

(7) Item 11, minutes of Board meeting of July 27, 1961, Board went into executive session at 11:10 p.m. and returned at 11:25 p.m.

Item 13 of the same meeting reflects motion by Kempf, seconded by Deedy, that County Counsel proceed with condemnation (Reporter Chatoian, I-J, present).

(8) Item 17, minutes of Board meeting of August 24, 1961, reflect Board went into executive session at 10:05 p.m. and returned to regular session at 10:40 p.m., purpose to discuss litigation and acquisition of lands.

(9) September 8, 1961, notice was filed by the County Clerk in records of Superior Court, Court House, San Rafael, of time, place and date set for pre-trial conference on said suit.

(10) August 28, 1961, County Counsel, in negotiations with attorney for Mosk Realty Company, reached price agreement believed to be acceptable to district and ordered from title company escrow to School Board.

(11) September 12, 1961, County Counsel forwarded for action and execution by School District, if approved, escrow instructions and certificates of acceptance.

(12) Item 14, minutes of Board meeting of September 14, 1961, reflect Board acted on and approved certificates of acceptance (Reporter Chatoian, I-J, present). Subsequently, County Counsel received from School District executed escrow instructions, certificates and warrants.

(13) September 21, 1961, County Counsel forwarded to title company escrow instructions, warrants, certificates of acceptance and instructed title company to consummate and close the acquisition.

(14) September 25, 1961, the property was acquired, deeds recorded and shown in Book 1500 at page 294, Official Records, County of Marin, Court House, San Rafael.

In light of the exposure of these facts, we can only hope and trust that the people of this county will never again witness, nor that fine, reputable and conscientious citizens serving their community on school boards and similar public bodies will ever again be subject to such irresponsible, inaccurate and misleading charges, innuendoes and reporting.

Now, as to the Zugsmith property at 143 Kent Avenue, the I-J reported on October 13, 1961 that the trustees had agreed in secret and in violation of law purchased the property. Not being content with these headlines and coverage, the I-J, on October 16, 1961, again with bold, front-page headlines and cover story, and with the obvious expectation of influencing and inflaming public opinion against the trustees, reported the price originally paid by Zugsmith for the property purchased approximately two years ago, and still not being content, reported in headlines on October 17, 1961, that you, the Grand Jury, had found out that the College had purchased the property in private (and if this finding is true, I am not aware of the same).

Now, the facts, truth and record of this transaction are as follows:

(a) As to the valuation question, the property has always been used for single family, residential purposes. It was purchased approximately two years ago by Zugsmith, et al. for residential purposes and has been used as such, the purchase price being $16,500.00. It is zoned for multiple use, and in August, 1961, it was listed under multiple listing for sale at $39,500.00. The owners had recently rejected a $25,000.00 offer on the property. Appraisers for the School District placed a value on it, as required by law, based on its highest and best use (multiple) at $27,500.00, less cost of removal of residence (assuming no salvage). The appraisers used the developers approach to site value, namely number of apartment units that it would yield by reason of size of the area, height limitations and minimum footage per unit required under the County Zoning Ordinance. The same unit figure was used as was involved in the sale of June, 1960 of similar property located at 202 Kent Avenue, Kentfield, California.

(b) The procedure under which this acquisition was made was as follows:

(1) The master plan adopted months before after public hearings and discussions with the press present shows access over the property for acreage to the rear which the School District had then planned and had since acquired for student housing.

(2) A real estate agent for owners initially contacted the Director of the College and offered it for sale to the College. The need of the property for access having heretofore been approved by the Board under the master plan and need for the same having been pointed out to the School District by the Planning Commission when its approval was sought, pursuant to regular administrative procedure, the Director procured a preliminary title report and appraisal and on October 2, 1961 asked the County Counsel to undertake preliminary negotiations.

(3) On October 2, 1961, as required by law, the Director notified the County Planning Commission of the fact that negotiations for purchase were being undertaken and asked its approval of the property for school purposes. Thereafter, at public session the County Planning Commission, on October 9, 1961, in the presence of reporter from the Independent-Journal, approved the proposed acquisition.

(4) County Counsel undertook negotiations with the agent representing the owner.

(5) October 10, 1961, County Counsel forwarded to School District for consideration and with the recommendation that it be approved, accepted and executed, a counter-offer of property owner evidenced by deposit receipt agreement executed by the owner and its agent.

(6) Item 7, minutes of Board meeting of October 12, 1961, show that the Board went into executive session at 8:30 p.m. to discuss legal matters relating to land purchases and returned to open session at 8:50 p.m.

(7) Item 18, minutes of Board meeting of October 12, 1961, reflected motion by Oliver, seconded by Deedy, that purchase of the Zugsmith property at 143 Kent Avenue, Kentfield, be approved as recommended in the County Counsel's letter of October 10, 1961, and that the Board President and Clerk be authorized to sign the deposit receipt, and that the County Counsel be authorized to complete the sale (Reporter Chatoian, I-J, present).

(8) October 19, 1961, County Counsel forwarded to title company executed deposit receipt, warrant and instructions for consummating the transaction.

Now, as to the Kent Woodland Properties, Inc. acquisition of approximately 2½ acres behind Kent Avenue, the I-J under headlines of "Grand Jury Finds Out College Purchased Property in Private" on October 17, 1961, and headlines of "College Land Deal Probe Still Open" of October 18, 1961, reported that the land had been purchased and paid for before action on the purchase was taken at a public meeting of the District Board and referred only to a motion to accept the property made by the Board on September 14, 1961.

The facts, truth and record of this transaction are as follows:

(1) The master plan adopted months before after public hearings and discussions (press present) shows this property as part of the campus expansion program.

(2) Letter of July 10, 1961 from realtor representing property owner to School District and offering property for sale at $44,000.00 was received by the School District and transmitted by the Administrator to Board members.

(3) Item 11, minutes of Board meeting of July 27, 1961, showed that the Board went into executive session at 11:10 p.m. and returned to regular session at 11:25 p.m.

Item 12 of said Board minutes of said date shows motion by Kempf, seconded by Deedy, that the Administrator instruct the County Counsel to negotiate with Kent Woodlands Investment Co. for purchase of the following property: Assessors Map Book Parcel 74-181-17 (this is the property in question). (Reporter Chatoian, I-J, present).

(4) August 17, 1961, letter from School District to County Planning Commission notifying it of the proposed acquisition and requesting approval. Subsequent approval by County Planning Commission was received at public hearing on August 21, 1961. (Press presumably present).

(5) Item 17, minutes of Board meeting of August 24, 1961, reflect Board went into executive session at 10:05 p.m. and returned to regular session at 10:40 p.m., the purpose of same to meet with County Counsel on matters of litigation and land acquisition for Kentfield campus.

(6) August 28, 1961, letter from County Counsel to School District administrator advising that a purchase price of $38,000.00 had been negotiated and that escrow instructions and certificates of acceptance would be forwarded for consideration and execution, if approved by the District Board.

(7) By letters on September 7 and 13, 1961, County Counsel forwarded to School District proposed escrow instructions and certificates of acceptance for consideration by Board.

(8) Item 8, minutes of Board meeting of September 14, 1961, reflect motion by Deedy, seconded by Kempf, that certificate of acceptance be approved. (Board minutes do not reflect but Board also at the same time approved the proposed transaction and escrow instructions and the same were executed by the President and Secretary of the Board.) (Reporter Chatoian, I-J, present).

(9) September 21, 1961, County Counsel forwarded to title company, executed certificate, escrow instructions and warrant, and authorized the closing of transaction.

(10) September 22, 1961, property acquired, deeds recorded in Book 1499, page 596, Official Records of the County of Marin.

Now as to the Coleman properties, constituting approximately fifteen acres of land in Larkspur and located north of Magnolia Avenue, these are the facts, truth and record of such proposed and pending acquisition.

(1) The master plan adopted months before, after public hearings and discussions (press present) shows this property a part of the campus expansion program.

(2) Item 14, minutes of Board meeting of July 27, 1961, reflect motion by Kempf, seconded by Oliver, that Administrator instruct the County Counsel to start negotiations to acquire Parcels 20-02-09 and 10 owned by Coleman, et al. (Reporter Chatoian, I-J, present).

(3) July 28, 1961, letter from School Administrator to County Counsel notified him that Board desired to undertake negotiations for acquisition of Coleman property.

(4) Item 8, minutes of Board meeting of August 24, 1961, reflect letter read from City Manager of Larkspur stating Larkspur Planning Commission had no objection to the acquisition of the property for school purposes.

(5) September 6, 1961, letter from County Counsel to Wells Fargo Bank-American Trust Company, a co-trustee of the Coleman property, advising of School District's plans to acquire the property and requesting negotiations. This matter is still pending and under negotiation.

Before closing, let me say to each of you, that in good faith and to the best of my legal ability, I have advised and the trustees of the Junior College have followed my opinion that legally they may communicate in private with their legal counsel and may confer in private session on matters of prospective or pending litigation. The office of Chief Counsel for the League of California Cities, the Attorney General of the State of California, and the County Counsel of Los Angeles County, the latter two being among the largest and most respected law offices in California specializing in public law, share this opinion. The fact that the Editor and reporting staff of the Independent-Journal, whose legal qualifications may be subject to question, do not agree with these opinions certainly should not constitute justification for such irresponsible publications.

This, then, ladies and gentlemen of the Grand Jury, is the true story of proposed, pending and consummated land acquisitions of the Junior College and for which the Independent-Journal by inaccurate reporting and inadequate investigation has charged five reputable, conscientious citizens of our community with the commission of crimes. As I could not, in conscience and justice, regardless of personal consequences, let these irresponsible charges and attacks upon the reputation and integrity of these trustees go unanswered, I likewise trust that in good conscience you will take immediate steps to place before the people of Marin County the truth of these matters and to make known to them the irresponsible, inaccurate and misleading manner in which they have been presented in the press by the Independent - Journal. The people whose reputations have been so attacked deserve nothing less.

Propaganda In Heritage Film

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

What is wrong about teaching our children about our American heritage?

Nothing, I say. We all want our children to learn about and be proud of the many fine traditions and ideals upon which our country was founded.

But we want this information to be presented factually and in an unbiased manner. We do not want propaganda inspired by either the right or the left wing fanaticism.

Have the people who are defending the showing of the film strip "Our American Heritage" ever seen it? I was one of the few onlookers who attended the meeting of the County School Board when Dr. Hollis showed the aforementioned film strip. He explained that it was designed to be shown in the schools.

The title, "Our American Heritage," which sounded so innocent or even desirable, was completely misleading. The contents, ill disguised as factual, consisted of extreme right wing propaganda which distorted and besmirched the facts of American history to present a John Birch-type of philosophy to the young viewers.

I'm sure that any fair minded adult, after seeing this film strip, would not only protest, but would demand that our children not be exposed to this or any other such propaganda.

The Challenge Of Extinction

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The shallow treatment given to civil defense in California by the recent wire service stories demands comment . . .

I am of the opinion that shelters can by no stretch of the imagination save 90 per cent of California's population as claimed. The pro shelter arguments so far expressed are based, I believe, on premises which are extremely questionable if not false:

1—That nuclear attack will be directed only at military targets, namely SAC and missile sites . . . Even if granted as the first wave objectives, will not the second wave objectives be less remote military or industrial targets or the urban population itself?

2—That the first strike objectives will be hit; there will be no second strike; and the populated areas will not be hit . . . What is the accuracy of delivery systems and really how good is our military intelligence?

3—That proposed shelters will offer protection next year, the following year, or the next five years . . . Must not shelters do this to justify such massive effort? Note the history of weapon developments . . .

In 15 years single weapon power has risen from 20,000 to 20,000,000 TNT tons taking only a 20 megaton weapon as presently operational. At what level will our technology place us in the coming year, in five or 10 years? How will present shelters perform then?

4—That adequate facilities would exist after attack for food, regrouping, medical, housing and health needs and agricultural resources for the future; that a democratic society will remain after attack . . .

I believe that because the extent of the attack, the targets, the accuracy of delivery and the level of future weapons technology are unknown, are guesses drawn from military theory about a kind of warfare that has never existed, fallout shelters do not offer a reasonable probability of survival for urban populations.

I believe that shelters present the possibility to survive an attack to those located remotely from urban centers and obvious targets. Whether or not one, even remotely located, would long survive after coming out is questionable.

I believe also that shelters stand as a symbol of the preparation for and endorsement of nuclear war — a kind of warfare which we have been assured by responsible people including the President, could end civilization as we know it.

I submit that "Red or Dead" are not the alternatives of today, that horizontal distance is only a temporary expedient and that the basic question we face is whether or not the human species has sufficiently developed its social intelligence to find an answer to the present challenge —the challenge of extinction.

Why Shouldn't Churches Lead?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I wish to commend Jean Suntzeff for her fine letter in your newspaper of Oct. 24. In this letter she tells of her desire to be active in the cause of world peace. She has expressed exceptionally well what I believe many American people are feeling today . . .

Any activity, Miss Suntzeff feels, "should not be tied to sponsorship of any given identified group, religious, political or other." I would like to suggest that the groups she alludes to are organizations which should be giving leadership in this vital quest for the end of nuclear terror. Every church, every religion is dedicated to the idea of a world where love, not hate, is the moving force. All churches seek the brotherhood of man and hold that human life is sacred . . .

Labor unions have improved working people's condition throughout the years and can be proud of their accomplishments. Now the most important working conditions of all is at stake—life itself. Should not ways to promote peace be first on the agenda of every union meeting?

That working for peace and world-wide disarmament is the prime duty of P-TA's and parent groups is obvious. The concern for developing reading skills in children must be matched with concern that these children will live to use those skills.

There are many other groups: Rotary, Kiwanis, women's auxiliary organizations who help give leadership in Marin County. We have never needed this leadership as desperately as we do now.

I like Miss Suntzeff's suggestion for individual signed statements and appeal to the Marin County service organizations to give leadership in this effort.

Food Packages For Emergencies

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

With all the uproar — I thought the enclosed copy of a letter to one of our Great White Fathers might give you an idea, or grist for some kind of a mill.

28 October 1961

Frank B. Ellis
Director—Civil Defense
& Mobilization
Washington, D. C.

Now that the so often attitude of apathy toward civil defense is dissipating, I have a suggestion for you, which aroused neighbors urge me to submit.

During the past 10 years I have been active in civil defense. I have talked with many community groups and similar organizations; I have distributed many C. D. publications; and in so doing I was chief air raid warden for San Mateo city, and am presently civil defense coordinator for the western district of Marin County.

Until very recently citizens meetings in connection with civil defense were poorly attended. Follow-up inquiries and surveys showed that defense literature had not been digested; had been ignored; and more often just plain discarded to the ash can. NOW THEY ALL WANT TO KNOW!

So— it is quite evident that people need to be continually, almost immediately, reminded, and given specific instructions, and similar aids — for their own good.

For example — C. D. has published many instructions and suggestions concerning foods and drink. The housewife, who normally does the shopping, wants particular advice—such as how much food for my family of four?, what kinds of food?, (not mere "canned goods"), and how long must we subsist on this? It is amazing how people resist thinking things out for themselves, especially where their experience is limited, or the subject strange entirely . . .

Hence, I suggest—it would be a fine public service (and equally fine public relations gesture) if some of our major food firms, like General Mills, General Foods, would package in radiation protected containers, or wrappings, the necessary foods for an emergency. These packages should be in three sizes to meet the requirements of small, medium, and large families. The price per package should be at cost, or minimal profit . . .

Next—I suggest the packages be sold through supermarket type outlets. There could be a "Civil Defense" display designed to attract attention and publicity . . .

Must Speak Out For Peace

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In response to a letter to the editor in the Oct. 24 issue of the I-J entitled "Need to Be Active For Peace" by Jean L. Suntzeff, I am adding my voice to hers.

My own anxieties about the threat of a nuclear war have led to the question: "If I am not going to admit defeat and build a useless bomb shelter, what AM I going to do?"

Mrs. Suntzeff has a great idea. We must speak out.

As individuals, or as a neighborhood group, as a community or as an entire county we must make ourselves heard in vehement protest of the use of the threat of nuclear war, its possible reality and subsequent total devastation.

Give Us More Pop Warner News

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I have been commuting between Marin County and San Francisco for slightly over nine years. During that period and prior to the ban placed on operating scooters on freeways, I think that I could count the number of scooters I have seen crossing the Golden Gate Bridge on the fingers of one hand. I know it is possible that a great multitude of scooters may have crossed this bridge at times when I was not crossing, but it seems doubtful—there just aren't that many of the darn things.

In looking through the I-J of Oct. 23 I notice that on page seven, under a two-line head in stud-horse type, that "Gate Bridge Directors May Approve Scooters," followed by seven and a half inches of garbage about scooters, bridge approaches and eucalyptus trees. Certainly a treasure of non-essential information that everyone should clip and frame.

At the same time, I noted that on page nine, under a three column head, you devoted less than 30 words to the three Pop Warner football games that were played in Marin County on Sunday.

As there were more young Americans playing football in the three games mentioned above than there are scooters in Marin County or eucalyptus trees, blocking the view of Alcatraz, on Vista Point, the question enters my mind as to whether you are not putting a little too much emphasis on the wrong kind of news.

It seems to me that a lot of people would like to know about the Youth programs in Marin County, with seasonal emphasis at this time, on Pop Warner football. It also seems to me that a lot of people would like to be informed about the team that will represent California in an intersectional tilt in Boise, Idaho, on Thanksgiving Day. As an ex-newspaperman, I feel that you are missing the boat in not assigning a writer to a story that should be of general interest to everyone that has any love for kids.

It's a sad commentary on your sports section when more than three-fourths of the news stories are reprints from AP or UPI. Frankly, about the only thing in the sports section that makes it worth turning to, except for the Monday rehash of the local high school games, is Connolly's column which I enjoy even if I do wonder, at times, whether the Giants or the 49ers pay him the most.

Marin Really Is Going To Dogs

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Your recent headlines confirm a sneaky suspicion that has been dawning on the undersigned newcomer to Marin County. MARIN COUNTY IS LITERALLY GOING TO THE DOGS!

The good people of Terra Linda partly restore my faith in their recent "battle of the bark." Mainly because they didn't bow to the inevitable and allow themselves to be hoodwinked into rubbing elbows with our canine friends socially.

The Humane Society in this fight came out smelling just a wee bit "doggie." The tail is certainly starting to wag the dog when you quote the director-manager as saying, "We want a shelter that will be copied by the rest of the United States," or another quote from the same article that the search would continue for a "suitable location with a park-like atmosphere." I would take this last statement to mean plenty of trees. I say, by golly, that dogs should take their chances and wait their turn on going to heaven just like the rest of us.

The bone I have to pick is with the common ordinary neighborhood dog that seemingly abounds in Marin County—at least in my neighborhood. With a so-called "leash law" in effect, dogs are allowed to run free and bark their heads off and their chained brothers let the whole world know their opinion of this law.

Frankly, to me, this gets to be nerve wracking and it is difficult to conform to the "dogs will be dogs" philosophy . . .

The police say that by law the Humane Society enforces the leash requirement. The Society in turn promises to "patrol" with no noticeable effects—end of the line . . .

Independent-Journal:

In Friday, Oct. 20, issue was a letter by Mrs. Vernan Annes of Fairfax, claiming bias against Drake High School. You in turn enumerated the inches used in showing Drake's wins the previous weekend.

I will admit you gave that game and also this last weekend's game good coverage. There have been times I have felt the same way Mrs. Annes does. To me it seems most of the publicity goes to San Rafael High School and I believe all of the schools should get at least as good. This is not what I started writing to you about.

What about giving the Frosh teams of all the schools a break and a lot of encouragement by giving them maybe a picture and a few lines. I believe it would work wonders for their morale, to let them know they are as important in their class as the junior and senior teams.

If they have to give up some space from some other sport that is not held here in the area, do so because by seeing themselves even mentioned in a news item would make them all feel pretty good even though some would be on a team that has lost.

Just give these boys who are starting out in the game a little break. It will sure be appreciated by all the parents.

Ridiculous To Change Name

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

My husband and I were really surprised when we read in last night's (Oct. 23) paper about changing the beloved name of Junior Museum to "Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum." How ridiculous!

I can just imagine myself approaching my Cub Scouts saying, "Well, boys, today we're going to the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum." The new name completely loses the feeling of a museum for the children.

The trustees felt the Junior Museum name "did not properly indicate the scope of our activities."—Again ridiculous! The new name has completely taken the complete idea of the place away.

I'm certainly anxious to see the trustees put the new long name on the directional signs downtown. And how many sightseers will it attract with the new name? Let's wait and see.

What Are Stakes In Next War?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Amidst the din and cacophony of voices clamoring for war, which in our time means the destruction of our civilization, we want to voice our most emphatic opposition to war.

What are the stakes for which we are asked to loose upon the universe a man-made pyre?

We believe that whatever they are, we should as the civilized people we are, strive for a peaceful solution through negotiation. There must be a way, since a thermo-nuclear war is unthinkable.

People Make Muir Beach Dirty

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

As the owner of Muir Beach property, I cannot sit back and let such a slanderous letter from one Anastasio C. Steere printed in you papere Oct. 21 go unanswered.

Muir Beach is a private beach for which taxes are paid to Marin County each and every year. It is one of the most beautiful and safest swimming beaches on the Pacific Coast and I have lived there for 30 years.

The leasees have eight 50-gallon containers placed around the beach for the convenience of the public, which they fail to use, breaking bottles, throwing cans is their delight.

Two portable toilets services each week are there for their comfort. At times some of the public do not know what they are there for.

The people that live at Muir Beach are lovers of beauty just as John Muir was. The mess the writer calls a disgrace is caused by our dirty citizens that bring their trash and fail to use the containers provided for them. It is easier to throw it out of their car or leave it on the beach.

Travel on Highway 1 any day and see the cans, broken bottles along the road. Maybe the Highway Commission is to blame and the Health Department should be notified.

Some months ago an older resident of Muir Beach was beaten badly when he tried to stop the breaking of bottles at Muir Beach. Did they do anything to the roughnecks? Your guess is as good as mine.

At high tides much debris is washed in, including seaweed, and if you don't like that you should not come to an ocean beach.

We have campers from all parts of the world and I heard nothing but praise for the beach. Had Anastasio Steere had any constructive criticism to make we would have been glad to cooperate with them.

The only way to keep the beach clean is to make it private and keep the public out. We have too many non-taxpayers planning our highways and the kind of free amusement that should be provided for them.

Last World War Already Started

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Thoughts before the Christmas season:

What a cruel paradox that the potential of our present should elicit the most profound optimism and at the same time the most abject pessimism. Our knowledge could provide a material utopia for the whole world of nations but bodes the extinction of mankind. With the tools in hand for the liberation from want of all men (and thence rule by law), we stand paralyzed with fearing the false step.

And who can tell us what to do? The recent very naive world expression of surprised horror at the Soviet bomb test is clear testimony to the impotence of any person of nation to halt a military group bent on having either the whole world or no world at all.

It is not possible that undeer the guise of testing, the Soviet military have, in reality, initiated the last war? An easy victory could be achieved by quartering a select population of soldiers, scientists and leaders in a place safe from radiation fallout while the radiation level of the earth is intentionally, gradually raised by the "testing" to a point which enfeebles, through fear and sickness, most of the earth's population.

Then, when there could be little resistance to occupation, the protected group could seize strategic points of control and thus attain total victory without the holocaust of formal war.

Preposterous? Impossible? Beyond even the most conscienceless man? But there is ample historical evidence that political and military men of great aspiration would sacrifice even their "own people" to win a game of power. And their own lives? To die in battle and to die with a last thought that their final act ended the whole of man's world! Why this is to play God; and there are no promotions beyond this ultimate rank.

Reader, how can we then, deal with this most likely possibility that our destruction is in process, even now, at the hands of a small, but omnipotent group? Our very survival depends upon a quick, but calmly reasoned and valid solution to the condition that confronts us.

War Not As Inevitable As Rain

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Capt. Burkett expressed a common military view dramatically in your Oct. 25 issue: war is as inevitable as rain.

Hence all effort to avoid war, such as the UN, disarmament, Peace Corps, etc., is wasted.

Building fall-out shelters is a way of "voting with one's feet" in favor of war. The life saving potential of the shelters is much too small to compensate for the increased danger of war they bring . . .

Why Alcoholism Often Goes On Untreated

NEW YORK (UPI)—Here you have two men, one seeking help, the other eager to give help. But the help-seeker is dead set against revealing what help he really needs, and the would-be help-giver doesn't really want to find out.

The sad thing is neither is consciously aware of what he is doing. They're both using the psychological and unconscious mechanism of "denial." And that, says Dr. Melvin L. Selzer, a psychiatrist, is a big reason why the "disease" alcoholism is often undetected and so untreated.

This kind of alcoholic hides his vice from himself as well as from the world. He claims he can "take it or leave it alone." Anyhow, he may say, he drinks only beer. Unconsciously he sees life as unbearably empty and threatening if it is life without strong drink.

To him there can be no life without alcohol. Unconsciously it is a desperate matter. He has to keep himself convinced that he doesn't really need alcohol. In that way he can believe there is no reason why he should give it up.

And so he goes to a physician and itemizes his ailments but omits the real one. The eager professional help-giver may then fuss around with secondary symptoms without ever rooting out their real cause, namely, alcoholism. The doctor, too, is using the "denial" mechanism, Selzer says.

Doctors have long since learned alcoholic patients are frustrating and there's no really good treatment for the "disease," alcoholism. You can understand why "the physician may be loath to discover that one of his patients is alcoholic," Selzer continued.

As difficult as it is to diagnose alcoholism in some men, it is many times harder to do it in women, he said. Women, especially women whose children are old enough to be in school, can hide their drinking better than men who are under the scrutiny of bosses and fellow workers.

What's more, the family will resort to myriads of useless nostrums and appeals over a period of many years rather than seek professional help because they are ashamed to have "mother" labeled an "alcoholic," Selzer says.

"Hence, most of us rarely see or hear of alcoholism in women and it is a diagnosis rarely thought of when dealing with the fair sex. The actual ratio of women to men alcoholics is enigmatic. Although all agree they're not as multitudinous as male alcoholics, women alcoholics are undoubtedly present in significant numbers."

Selzer is a member of the faculty of the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. He was lecturing physicians on the psychiatric quirks of alcoholism—and lamenting that so many people never realize a person is an alcoholic unless he (or she) habitually appears in public, dead drunk.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, Nov. 1, the 305th day of the year with 60 to follow in 1961. This is National Author's Day.

The moon is approaching its new phase.

The morning stars are Mercury and Venus.

The evenings stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1765, the Stamp Act levied by the British Crown to raise revenue in the Colonies went into effect.

In 1918, the Hapsburg Monarchy of Austria-Hungary was dissolved as Budapest became the capital of the Hungarian Republic and Vienna the capital of Austria.

In 1960, then a Senator, John F. Kennedy, denied that he was downgrading American in his campaign speeches.

A thought for today: Former President Harry S. Truman said: "The responsibility of the great states is to serve and not to dominate the world."

West leads the king of spades and South ruffs. Declarer cashes the ace of clubs, ruffs a club in dummy and returns a trump to finesse the nine.

South ruffs his other low club, takes a trump finesse with the queen, and cashes the ace of trumps to draw East's last trump. West discards two spades on the second and third round of trumps.

KEY SUIT: Diamonds is the key suit. South must somehow avoid the loss of two diamond tricks. This is quite difficult against West's strong bidding.

South cashes the king of clubs to apply further pressure. West cannot spare a diamond so must reduce to a singleton in spades. What's more, West must discard the ace of spades to avoid being thrown in with a spade.

By thi stime South should have a clear idea of West's distribution. He leads a low diamond to dummy's queen. West cannot afford to put up the king since that would solve South's diamond problem.

Declarer now ruffs out West's last spade and leads the jack of diamonds. West, reduced to three diamonds, must win with the king of diamonds and return the suit to South's acenine.

DAILY QUESTION: Partner opens with one spade, and the next player passes. You hold:

♥ J 10 4 2
♦ Q 4 3
♣ 8

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two spades. You can afford to raise because of your fine distribution; but you cannot afford more than a single raise because of your woeful weakness in high cards.

Cub Scout Pack Gear Is Lost

The boys of Cub Scout Pack 132 of San Francisco must be resigned to some cold camping in the days ahead.

Last weekend they lost a duffel bag from a truck while driving on Highway 101 north of Corte Madera on their way to Samuel P. Taylor park. In the bag were nine blankets and pillows, three air mattresses, sleeping bags and a 9-by-9-foot umbrella tent.

It would warm the cockles of the boys' hearts if whoever found the gear would notify Sister Genevieve at St. Vincent de Paul School, 2356 Green Street, San Francisco.

Firemen's Ball Set For Mill Valley

Mill Valley Volunteer Fireman will hold their 66th annual ball Saturday at the Outdoor Art Club from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Chairman Milton Azevedo said today that persons may still send in dance ticket stubs to the fire department in the city hall. He said "there has been a wonderful response so far."

Fred Roemer is in charge of refreshments; R. Jacobs in charge of hat check; music will be by Dick Hart and his orchestra. Decorations are by the women's auxiliary.

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Sickness, Prevention Growing More Costly

NEW YORK (AP) — Illness — and its prevention — grows more costly. Individuals don't have to be told this. And business is finding it more expensive, too. Both are well aware of the rise in medical and hospital costs in recent years.

More firms are offering employee medical services. This grows both more extensive and more expensive. Companies also are increasingly involved in meeting all or part of their employees' health insurance costs.

Medical fees and hospital care grow more expensive because costs themselves have gone up but also because care is increasingly being widened and improved.

Hospitals have higher operating costs and pay employees more. They also offer services today with equipment unknown a few years back. New drugs, new doctoring and nursing techniques, new equipment — all push up costs. Adding to the total outlay is that Americans, with increased incomes, are seeking more medical care all the time. Each year a larger share of the spending is for prevention rather than cure.

This all adds up to more than 16 billion dollars a year that Americans now pay for medical service.

Many individuals have had to go into debt to meet costs in major emergencies. But many have had help from various sources little used by earlier generations.

One is from health insurance payments. Insurance companies are estimated to have paid out three billion dollars in benefits in 1960.

A second aid to individuals faced with illness or accidents is the growing role of corporate medical departments.

Those offer services all the way from preventative shots for influenza and other epidemics and patching up of on-job injuries to regular and complete medical examinations — the latter usually for the top echelon of executives or key employees.

The National Industrial Conference Board finds the cost of such services up more than 10 per cent in the last five years for 96 companies queried. The firms now pay about $17.5 million a year to provide medical facilities for 890,000 employees.

Included are physical examinations, visiting nurse service, on-job nursing care, accident prevention programs, dental care and medical supplies and equipment. Excluded are company supported health insurance programs or sick-leave pay.

Higher salaries in the medical departments, increased supply and equipment costs, and expanded medical facilities are cited as reasons for the rise in spending.

Companies employing more than 10,000 persons report visits that range from four to eight a year per worker. Visits range between eight and ten in the smaller firms.

Youth Sentenced In Battery Case

Christian Joseph Gingher, 18, of Novato, one of two youths who beat a 27-year-old man at an Ignacio drive-in on Sept. 10, drew three years' supervised probation and $105 fine yesterday.

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court also ordered Gingher to make restitution for damages to the victim, J. D. Sumner, who was attacked at Burge's Drive-In by Gingher and a companion, Carl Brione Rivamonte, 18.

Rivamonte died in an automobile accident last month.

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE $233,000.00 TERRA LINDA RECREATIONAL DISTRICT 1961 BONDS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that sealed proposals will be received by the Boad of Directors of Terra Linda Recreational District (a recreation and park district) of Marin County, State of California, at the regular meeting place of said Board at 680 Del Ganado Road, San Rafael, Marin County, California on Wednesday, November 22, 1961, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock p.m., for the purchase of $233,000.00 principal amount of bonds of said district designated "Terra Linda Recreational District 1961 Bonds", more particularly described below:

ISSUE: $233,000.00 consisting of 233 bonds of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, numbered 1 to 233, both inclusive.

DATE: All of said bonds are dated November 30, 1961.

MATURITIES: Said bonds mature (without option of prior payment), as follows:

$5,000.00 principal amount on November 30 in each of the years 1962 to 1974;

$10,000.00 principal amount on November 30, in each of the years 1975 to 1990;

$8,000.00 principal amount on November 30, 1991.

INTEREST RATE: Maximum six (6) percent per annum, payable annually the first year on the 30th day of November, 1962, and semi-annually thereafter on the 30th day of May and the 30th day of November in each year. Bidders must specify the rate of interest which the bonds hereby offered for sale shall bear. Bidders will be permitted to bid different rates of interest and to split rates irrespective of the maturities of said bonds, except that no bond may bear more than one rate of interest or more than one coupon to evidence any interest payment. The interest rate stated in the bid must be in a multiple of one-eighth or one-twentieth of one percent per annum, payable as aforesaid.

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the San Francisco Main Office of Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association, in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, or at the option of the holder at the respective offices of the paying agents of said District in the City of New York, State of New York, or in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois.

REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by the district. Such bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds are authorized by vote of two-thirds of the voters voting at a special election for the purpose of authorizing bonds for acquisition, construction, completion and equipping of public recreational facilities, including parks, playgrounds, swimming pool and recreational buildings and for lands and rights-of-way.

SECURITY: Said bonds are general obligations of said district, and the Board of Supervisors of Marin County has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said district subject to taxation for district purposes by said County, without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service, or by decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may, at his option, prior to the tender of said bonds by the district, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and in such case the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of Messrs. Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington & Sutcliffe, of San Francisco, California, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge. A copy of the opinion, certified by the official in whose office the original is filed, will be printed on each bond at the expense of the successful bidder, if requested in his bid.

TERMS OF SALE

HIGHEST BID: The bonds will be awarded to the highest bidder considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid, (if any) from the total amount of interest which the district would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed between the dates aforesaid on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: The district reserves the right, in its discretion, to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Board of Directors of said District will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for the receipt of proposals unless such time of award is waived by the successful bidder.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the Treasurer of Marin County, in San Rafael, California, as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the date of the sale, but not prior to the date of said bonds.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the district shall fail to tender the bonds for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Each bid, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Directors of Terra Linda Recreational District and endorsed "Proposal for Terra Linda Recreational District 1961 Bonds," and must either be delivered to said Board not later than 8:00 o'clock p.m. on said date of sale, at its regular meeting place at 680 Del Ganado Road, San Rafael, California, or mailed to said Board in care of its Secretary at 650 Del Ganado Road, San Rafael, California, in time to be received by said Secretary not later than 5:00 o'clock p.m. on said date.

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $1,000.00, drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the County of Marin to secure the district from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the district on the basis of their respecive bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the district. Checks of all bidders (except the successful bidder) will be returned by the district by mail promptly following the sale date above specified. No interest will be paid upon the deposit made by the successful bidder.

Information relative to the financial condition of said district will be furnished to any bidder upon request.

There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of the district, or the title of the officers thereof to their respective offices, and the district will furnish to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.

Dated: October 18, 1961.

New Marin News Editor Named

Sausalito publisher John M. Harlan said today he has hired Jack Lasonder as editor of the Marin News and Marin Guide "in an enlargment of the staff."

Lasonder, 39, who lives at 34 Bulkley Avenue, Sausalito, was a newsman in his native Netherlands and during his nine years in the United States. Has worked for the World Telegram and Sun in New York, the Oakland Tribune and the Morning News in San Leandro. He was associate editor of the San Francisco Progress for three years.

Harlan has named Mrs. Judy Noll of Tiburon to be in charge of women's and special features. She formerly worked for the Tiburon Pelican and does public relations work.

Marinite to Appear On 'Community Circle'

Mrs. Robert Tuckey of Kent Woodlands will appear on KRON-TV's "Community Circle" program Saturday at 4:30 p.m.

Mrs. Tuckey will discuss flower arrangement and the Marin Art and Garden Center and its Decorations Guild on the Channel 4 show.

The City Council of Homestead, Fla., recently termed the town "The City of Bicycles" because of community-wide interest in cycling.

Mill Valley Planners Meeting With County

Mill Valley planning commissioners have been invited to attend a meeting of the County Planning Commission Monday, Nov. 6 to discuss land use controls of Mill Valley and the county and to review the North Ridge Master Plan.

The meeting is at the county office building at 1711 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, and the matter is to come up at about 4 p.m.

Bonsai Tree Show Slated For Saturday

A bonsai tree, to be given as a door prize at the Marin Bonsai Club's free show Saturday at the Bank of America at Fifth Avenue and B Street in San Rafael, has a history intertwined with a family that spans two nations.

The show will run from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Bonsai is the art of growing small trees in confined areas, a practice developed in China and acquired by Japan — and now spread to the world.

The tree to be given Saturday is a Japanese maple grown from seed 12 years ago by the late Chiyukichi Takahashi, Berkeley tailor and grower of miniature gardens, who died in 1959 at the age of 89.

U.S. IN 1896

A native of Hiroshima, he was a military tailor when he first came to America in 1896 to set up a tailor shop in Oakland.

A few years later he returned to Japan to get a bride, Shizu, who was cited by the University of California Mothers Club as mother of the year before her death in 1950.

The Takahashis reared 10 children and sent all of them through U.C. In 1958 a book about the family, "Suddenly the Sun," was published.

RELOCATED

He was driven away from his beloved trees when he and his family were relocated after Pearl Harbor. In care of a tenant who later was drafted by the military, the Takahashi trees suffered from neglect and grew wild. The tailor later was reimbursed by the government.

One of his daughters is married to Harvey Suzuki of Berkeley, a landscape gardener and bonsai nurseryman known for his trees and his lectures. He was principal speaker at a recent meeting of the Marin Bonsai Club and it was from him that the door prize was obtained.

Sutro Librarian Will Speak To Sausalito Group

Richard H. Dillon of Mill Valley, head librarian at Sutro Library in San Francisco, will speak on "You Can Go Home Again" Nov. 16 at 8 p.m. in Perry's Hall on Caledonia Street, Sausalito.

His talk is sponsored by the Friends of the Sausalito library. The newly-formed organization is designed to acquaint the community with the public library's services and needs.

Dillon, a native Sausalitan, will tell of his experiences with the Sausalito library as he was growing up. He will also tell something of his newest book, "Shanghaiing Days," which deals with early days on the San Francisco waterfront.

Originals Only Opening Slated

The grand opening of Originals Only, a new shop featuring hand-made arts, crafts, and gift items at 630 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, has been scheduled for Nov. 11.

Lotte Murphy, owner of the shop, designs and creates plastic items under the name "Eleste." Her specialties include paperweights, book ends, cigarette boxes and jewelry in which she untilizes bits of fern, leaves and butterflies.

The shop will also feature leather goods and sweaters knit to order.

Basement Fire In Home Reported

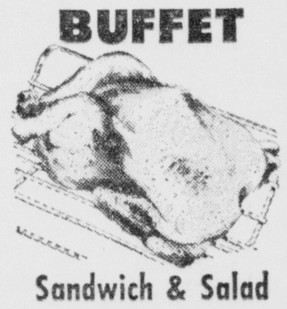

Russ Boren of 20 Rowan Way, Mill Valley, went down into his basement at 5:56 p.m. Monday to get some wood for a fire in his fireplace. Shortly afterward he discovered he had a fire in his basement.

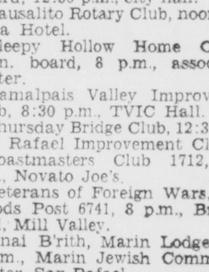

He told firemen he accidentally knocked the ash off his cigarette which ignited some overstuffed furniture, chairs, a rug and clothing. Damage was estimated at $100.

Petaluman to Talk On Care of Flowers

J. C. Gould of Petaluma will talk on the growing and care of fuchsias at the regular monthly meeting of the Marin chapter of the American Assn. of Retired Persons at the home of Mrs. Kay Stephenson at 130 Humboldt Street, San Rafael, at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

There will be a social hour and refreshments after the talk, Ione Johnson, president, said.
